PREFACE.

IN compliance with positive directions given by the late Mr. George Brinley, his whole collection of books relating to America will be offered for sale by auction. The Catalogue of the First Part of this collection is now submitted to the public. Few of those into whose hands it is likely to fall need be informed that—within the field it covers—it comprises a greater number of volumes remarkable for their rarity, value, and interest to special collectors and to book-lovers in general, than were ever before brought together in an American sale-room. The titles of the books and tracts, though rarely given without abbreviation, will be found sufficiently full to distinguish the edition or impression, and accuracy of description as regards binding and general condition has been aimed at, throughout. All imperfections discovered by the compiler of the Catalogue have been pointed out, though a rigorous collation of every volume was, under the circumstances, impossible.

Some critical readers may object to the frequent recurrence of the terms “scarce,” “rare,” “superlatively rare,” and so on; and if such terms have been misapplied the objection is certainly a valid one. But it is believed that a thorough examination of the catalogue will show that reference to the rarity of a book or tract has been omitted when it might fairly have been made, ten times as often as it has been made without warrant of critical bibliography. Turn, for example, to the collection of “Books printed in New England, 1640-1709” (pp. 87-126), and to that of the “Works of the Mathers” (pp. 127-176), and of the six hundred and fifty consecutive titles there are scarcely twenty that any American bibliographer could hesitate to mark “rare,” or “very rare.”

The general plan of the Catalogue is indicated, as regards the First Part, by the table of Contents, prefixed. The arrangement—it can hardly be called a classification—is substantially that which was adopted by Mr. Brinley himself, for his book-shelves. A strictly alphabetical arrangement, by authors' names or titles, would perhaps have been more acceptable to bibliographers, but the extent of the library rendered such an arrangement impracticable, and it seemed inappropriate to the sale-catalogue of a library which is not less remarkable for the completeness of its collections in special departments, than by the number of its titles.

The Second Part will comprise books relating to New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware, with special collections of works printed by William Bradford, Reynier Jansen, A. Bradford, S. Keimer, Christopher Sauer, Benjamin Franklin, and other early printers, and a collection of works relating to the Quakers ; Maryland, Virginia, and the Southern colonies and States ; the American Revolution ; Washingtoniana ; the United States, since the establishment of Independence ; the West, California, and the Pacific coast ; Mexico, Central America, the West Indies, and South America ; the American Indians, and their Languages ; American Biography ; American Poetry ; and Books printed in America from 1709-1776.

The Third Part will include American Bibles, Psalmody, and Music ; books relating to Episcopacy in the United States, Methodism, the Baptists, and other denominations ; Arts and Sciences ; Education, including early School Books ; Chap Books (a large and curious collection) ; Bibliography, Catalogues, etc. ; Miscellaneous Works ; Almanacs ; Broad-sides ; Maps, Prints, and Autographs.

HARTFORD, CONN., Jan. 1, 1879.

From the New York Tribune, Tuesday, February 11, 1879.

Rare Old Books to be Sold.

AN EXTRAORDINARY COLLECTION.

LIBRARY OF THE LATE GEORGE BRINLEY, OF HARTFORD—ITS QUAIN'T AND COSTLY TREASURES—VOLUMES WORTH A THOUSAND DOLLARS—FIVE COPIES OF ELIOT'S INDIAN BIBLE—FOUR HUNDRED MATHERS—A LETTER FROM MR. JOSEPH SABIN WHICH ENUMERATES ONLY BOOKS WORTH AT LEAST ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS EACH.

BOOK-BUYERS all over New England, and many who are outside of that limit, have for several years been acquainted with the fact that the late Mr. GEORGE BRINLEY was the owner of one of the most valuable libraries in the United States. He was known to the bibliographical elect as a bold, shrewd, and determined buyer in the auction-room, where he was always represented, in New York, by one or the other of two Nassau-Street booksellers, who usually carried off the nuggets; but the catalogue of his library is at once the cause of astonishment and surprise. It is no exaggeration to assert that this catalogue describes more rare and important books relative to American history, than all the auctions made in New York during the last fifteen years, and when it is remembered that this period includes the sales of such libraries as that of William Menzies, R. W. Roche and others, of New York; John A. Rice, of Chicago; J. B. Fisher and Andrew Wight, of Philadelphia, and other collectors, it may sound very like an exaggeration; but it is not. Of the two thousand six hundred and nineteen lots, of which the catalogue consists, over one-half are books which rarely appear for sale, and it is scarcely possible that anything less than another half century can place its parallel on the market.

Over thirty years ago, MR. BRINLEY began to collect American books, chiefly with a view to securing as nearly as possible a series of the typographical antiquities of America, including specimens of the press of every printer. How far he has succeeded the diligent reader of this catalogue may realize; to say that he has been amazingly successful is the least that can be said. Part I. of the catalogue contains the "Whole Booke of Psalmes," better known as the Bay Psalm Book, printed at Cambridge, Mass., 1640, which is the first book printed in the British Colonies. A copy, much inferior to this, sold at Boston for about $1,000. Parts II. and III. will include the first book printed in Pennsylvania, and some of the earliest specimens of printing in Mexico, almost a hundred years before the art had reached New England. Not only has MR. BRINLEY been attentive to the antiquities of American printing, for his collection includes the famous Mazarin Bible, which is presumably the first book printed from movable type. But this is anticipating the catalogues of further portions of this extraordinary library.

THE CATALOGUE.

The catalogue is arranged on a geographical principle, the books being classed in the order of settlement of the various colonies, an arrangement which has the advantage of placing, within a moderate space, all there is on a given subject, united with the disadvantage of not being able to turn directly to a book without thought as to where it should be; but this is a small matter. The books are evidently described by a gentleman who knows what rare books are; the notes, which are not so numerous as they might be, are written with great ability, while his description of the physical condition of the books is evidently dictated by a desire to represent them fairly; the catalogue is moreover replete with references to the more important bibliographical authorities for further information concerning many of the books. The titles of some of the most important of the books are given at length, together with their collations.

This notice of the catalogue will be confined to a brief description of the most important of the rarer books. The writer has marked over a thousand items as important—to reduce this number to enough to constitute a mere notice is most difficult, for he must pass over many whose interest is great to the collector of books. Probably there is no one of the books named below which will not sell for one hundred dollars at the least. Passing over Columbus and Drake, one reaches Lot 30, George Gardiner's Description of the New World, London, 1651; I know of only one copy in America—that is in Harvard College. Lot 31, Sir Hymfrey Gilbert's Cataia, London, 1576, is still rarer; Jadis's copy sold for 25 guineas, and more recently Bolton Corney's copy brought 55 guineas. Lot 40 is a copy of Peter Martyr, which belonged to Richard Eden who made a translation of the work. It has for a long time been a question with those interested, from what edition Eden made his translation. This question is decided by this copy. Lot 76 is the best edition of Champlain's Voyage to Canada, which is very rarely found with the map. Its importance is too well known to need any description. Lot 103, Lescarbot, and lot 143, Sagard, are of scarcely inferior interest; the trio would form a desirable acquisition to any collection.

THOUSAND DOLLAR BOOKS.

Lot 280 is very properly described as "The Verie two Eyes of New England Historic." It consists of Brereton's Virginia and Rosier's True Relation, two books so rare that it is impossible to record the sale of either of them in this country. Of the former there is a copy in Harvard College, and of the latter, one in the Library of the New York Historical Society. They ought to bring a thousand dollars. Lot 308, Ferdinando Gorges' America Painted to the Life, London, 1659, has all the four parts including the part stolen bodily from Johnson's Wonder Working Providence, described below. Lot 312, Higginson's New-Englands Plantation, London, 1630, is a volume of equal rarity, interest, and importance. I know of only two copies. Lot 314, Johnson's New-England, London, 1654, is the work referred to above as having been stolen bodily by Sir Ferdinando Gorges. The copy described is uncut, and in that condition may be regarded as unique. Lot 322, Lechford's Plain Dealing, London, 1642, "is a work of much interest and of high authority." Lot 336, Morton's New English Canaan, Amsterdam, 1637, is a work of unusual rarity; the Menzies copy sold for $160. Lot 359, Captain John Smith's Description of New England, London, 1616, and lot 363, Smith's New Englands Trials, London, 1622, are either of them rare and interesting enough to excite the acquisitiveness of a collector; but lot 364 is the grand pièce de résistance—it is no less a book than the dedication copy of Captain John Smith's General Historie of Virginia, the first edition, on LARGE PAPER. When I say that there is only one other copy of this book in America, which belongs to Mr. Samuel L. M. Barlow, I assert what I know, and when I add that this is the identical copy which was bound for the Duchess of Richmond and Lenox, to whom it was dedicated, I have no hesitation in saying that not only will this bring $1,000, but it will go beyond that sum. It is assuredly the most valuable book in the first day's sale, and one of the most important in the catalogue. Lot 365 is another copy of the same work, with a later date and on small paper, but it includes "The True Travels," and being fine copies of both works, would not be dear at $300 to $400. Lots 377-380 are various editions of Woods' New England's Prospect; they are all rare and important.

THE EARLY INDIAN WARS.

The department of "Wars with the Indians" is important. Lot 383, Church's King Philip's War, Boston, 1716, is the original edition, so rare that it has never before been offered for sale at auction. Dr. Green, of Boston, had a copy which he sold to me for $200. I sold it to Mr. J. F. McCoy, and it has since gone where it will remain—to Brooklyn. It changed hands in a trade equal to about $400 in money. Lot 390, Easton's Narrative, is a modern book, but it and the following have sold for about $100 each. Lot 393, Hubbard's New-England, is the original edition, but the map is from the London edition, for a copy of which Mr. B. Quaritch, of London, paid £26 at a sale by Puttick & Simpson, in 1876. He sold it to Mr. Huth, of London, recently deceased. Lot 408, Major Mason's Pequot War, Boston, 1736, is of very great rarity in uncut condition; it has sold for $160. Lot 415, Penhallow's Wars of New-England, Boston, 1726, is in its original binding, which will be a sufficient guarantee as to the amplitude of the margin. It is unusually scarce. Lots 417, 418, and 430, are as important as they are rare. A complete set of the series may well be regarded as a desirable acquisition to any collector. Lot 422 is Symmes' Pigg-wacket, Boston, 1725. An uncut copy of the first edition of this "nugget" may be regarded as presque unique. Roche's copy of the second edition was bought by Mr. Menzies for $175, and sold at his sale for $122.50. I am unable to record the sale of the first edition. Lot 423 is the second edition of the same work.

Lots 431-444 are a series of Treaties with the Indians; all are scarce, some especially so. Lots 445-468 include a series of original editions of the works put forth by the Propagation Society. Lot 448 is especially rare; 459 is almost equally so, while lots 464-466 comprise all the variations of that tract. Lots 469-508 are Narratives of Captivities among the Indians, which include some never before offered for sale. Puritanism, Non-conformity, and Independency are next in order and include John Cotton's Abstract of the Lawes of New England as they are now established, London, 1641 (lot 545). Lot 555, Cotton's Bloudy Tenent, Washed, is one of the series of books which lie at the foundation of Rhode Island History. Lot 570, John Eliot's Christian Commonwealth is interesting because the Commonwealth of Massachusetts ordered that all copies of it should be "cancelled and defaced;" perhaps the earliest example of a work that has been thus distinguished in the American Colonies. Lot 578, Gorton's Simplicities Defence, London, 1646, is one of the corner-stones of a Rhode Island Library, especially that part of it which is now known as Warwick. Lots 687-689, Roger Williams' Response to John Cotton, etc., are important as exhibiting the growth of religious liberty; the buyer of lot 555 should secure them.

OLD ALMANACS AND ELIOT BIBLES.

Books printed in New England, 1640-1709, are alike conspicuous for their number and importance. Lots 699-703 are a series of almanacs, which range among the very rarest things of their kind. They represent the earliest specimens of American typography, and are believed to be unique. The writer of this notice saw them when in the possession of the late H. K. Wiggin of Boston, who is understood to have sold them for over $1000. Following these lots are other collections of almanacs of uncommon rarity. Lot 733, A Platform of Church Discipline, Cambridge, 1649, is so rare that I cannot quote the sale of a copy. Its interest is only equalled by its scarcity. Lot 754, A Declaration of Former Passages and Proceedings, Cambridge, 1645, is the third work printed in New England, and supposed to be unique. Lot 760, John Eliot's Communion of Churches, Cambridge, 1665, is the first privately printed American book, and one of two copies only known. Mr. Menzies's copy sold for $155. Lot 765, Eliot's Dying Speeches of several Indians, is the only known copy. Lots 786-790 consist of Eliot's Indian Bible and New Testament. This catalogue is certainly the only one where five of these Bibles are described. To go into particulars concerning these very rare and highly interesting volumes would occupy too much space; therefore I content myself with a reprint of the quaint exclamation of Cotton Mather: "Behold, ye Americans, the greatest honour that ever you were partakers of! This is the only Bible that ever was printed in all America, from the very foundation of the World." Lot 791, Eliot's Indian Grammar Begun, is the only copy which has ever occurred for sale in New York. Lot 798, "Massachuset Psalter," Boston, 1709, is "of extreme rarity, especially with the title in English and Indian." Indeed, this department of the catalogue—Indian Languages—includes several of the books concerning which I am unable to record any notice of their sale.

Lot 814, The General Laws of Massachusetts, Boston, 1672, and the two following are as important as they are rare and valuable. The succeeding lots, 816 and 818 inclusive, are scarcely secondary to the others in value. Lot 827, Morton's New-England's Memoriall, Boston, 1669, relates chiefly to Plymouth Colony, but is very properly catalogued as "one of the corner-stones of New England History," and this first edition is uncommonly rare. Lot 828, Norton's Heart of N-England rent at the Blasphemies of the Present Generation, Cambridge, 1659, is even rarer than the preceding work. Lot 829 is a second edition of the same work. I know of a copy which changed owners at a cost of $125. Lot 841, "A Quickening Word for the hastening a Sluggish Soul" is a title which reminds one of Richard Baxter's Shove for heavy ... Christians. This work is supposed to be unique, but a quickening word will be always in season during the progress of the sale of this library. Lot 858, Sewall's Phenomena, etc., Boston, 1697, first edition, is as rare as the volume is interesting. It is not pleasant to find that the author concludes that "so near an approach to, so compleat a resemblance of Hell, was not to be found, in rerum natura" as in America. Lot 860 is a third edition of the same work with additions, about which the catalogue gives some curious illustrations not unsuited to the present time and latitude. Lot 884, Wheeler's Thankfull Remembrance, Cambridge, 1676, is an uncut copy: "in such condition, one of the very rarest of American books." Boone's copy sold for $275.

THE MATHER FAMILY.

Lots 930-1,330 comprise the works of the Mather family. So extensive and varied a collection is not elsewhere to be found; they are all scarce, many of them especially so. I do not propose to sit in judgment upon the works of this extraordinary family; their industry is patent, their pedantry is perceptible, their earnestness is evident, and their influence, in a certain sense, anomalous, inspired their contemporaries. As indicative of their mental activity, I remark that Sabin's "Dictionary" enumerates no fewer than 133 works by Increase and 411 by Cotton Mather, in number almost unparalleled, in importance, perhaps, immaterial, yet their acquisition is always a desiderata in an American library. Overwhelmed as I am with no fewer than 400 Mathers, "all in a row," I must content myself with pointing out only the most important. Lot 941 is interesting as exhibiting the holy horror with which Increase Mather looked upon the dancing "Church-Members in N. E. as have sent their Children to be Practitioners or Spectators of mixt Dancing between Young Men and Maidens," says the reverend author (p. 29), "have cause to be deeply humbled. But stand still a while! what a word is here! Church-members and their Children in N. E. at mixt Dances!" Lot 948 is not only one of the rarest, but is assuredly one of the most important of the author's books. The catalogue is both earnest and decided on the subject, but it happens that there is another known copy of the work in England, whose owner holds it at about £300; but this can hardly be reckoned as lessening the commercial value of this copy. Lot 990 is interesting as exhibiting the delusion which drew into its belief so many of the supposed strong men of New England. Lot 1,019 is historically valuable and especially rare. Lot 1,045 is the first book printed in Boston, 1675. Lots 1,047-50 are clear proofs that notwithstanding "Wo to Drunkards" had been preached for hundreds of years, people had not then stopped drinking.

I now reach the works of Cotton Mather, so named after the Rev. John Cotton. He was a more voluminous but not more luminous writer than his father Increase. Lot 1,097 is the first which possesses a decided historical interest. Lot 1,101 is a sort of sequel to it. That Cotton Mather was something of a poet was demonstrated by the publication of his "Psalterium Americanum," but Lot 1,106 is an "Elegy on Mr. Nathanael Collins" and settles the question. Sabin's "Dictionary," No. 46300, says:

"This extremely rare and curious poem abounds in extravagant hyperbole, though by no means remarkable for poetic talent. The following lines are a fair specimen :

‘There,
Gro’ling in ashes, with dishev’led hair,
Smiting her breast, black’d with a mourning dress,
Resembling mother Sion in distress;
Pitty, the Church of Middletown bespeaks
Set in the midst of swoons and sobs and shrieks.
With Bowells full of it I hastned to
The Wet place, asking why she grieved so?
And had this Answer:
Sir, ask you this? Are you a Sojourner
Within New-England’s bounds and know not why?
I’ve lost great COLLINS, man! O that, O there,
From this Tears-Fountain is my misery.’”

This book is a very rare piece, and will doubtless find its way to Providence. Lots 1,142 and 1,150 are both historical, the latter has a lot of superstition thrown in. Lot 1,158 is a large-paper copy of the great work of Cotton Mather—the “Magnalia;” Menzies’s copy sold for $125. Lot 1,169, “Memorable Providences,” is interesting as exhibiting the strength of the delusion which was then prevalent in and about Boston. It is of extreme rarity, and one of the earliest American works referring to the witchcraft frenzy in New England, in 1692, when the execution of witches became a calamity more dreadful than the sword. Lot 1,192, Pietas in Patriam, London, 1697. Calef is so unkind as to remark that Mather wrote this book anonymously, in order to praise himself. It is reprinted entire in the “Magnalia.” Lot 1,195 is “A Poem Dedicated to the Memory of ... Mr. Urian Oakes,” Boston, 1682. The poetry is as poor as it is pious, and out of sheer regard to the author we forbear a quotation. Its bibliographical interest lies in the fact that it is Mather’s First Published Work, and the copy described is the only one known to exist. It is, perhaps, fortunate that the youthful author, then about twenty years old, abandoned the muse after his “Elegy” on Mr. Collins. This poem will probably go to Providence. Lot 1,223 is a “Sermon addressed to those who unnecessarily frequent the Tavern.” Now the fact is, all of Mr. Mather’s addresses were serious, but to suppose that two hundred years ago a Bostonian should have visited a tavern unnecessarily is libelous.

WITCHCRAFT AND COLONIAL HISTORY.

The department “Witchcraft” is strong; it includes, lot 1,352, Calef’s More Wonders of the Invisible World, in which Cotton Mather is handled without gloves. It is one of the earliest and ablest of the works in opposition to the Salem delusion. The Menzies copy sold for $145. Lot 1,365, Hale’s Modest Enquiry, 1702, is a book about which the catalogue is sufficiently emphatic.

The next department is “Colonial, State and Local History,” including all of the New England States. The books relative to a “Bank of Credit, Land Bank, Bill of Credit, Currency,” etc., are numerous, rare, curious, and at this present period seasonable. Election and Funeral Sermons, Historical Collections, Orations, Town and Local Histories, Old Magazines, etc., are scattered in great profusion, and would in a library of lesser importance be regarded as worthy of special notice.

Such books as lot 1,909, Mourt’s Relation, in my judgment, one of the most important in the sale; lot 2,001, "The General Laws of Connecticut; lot 2,104, "The Saybrook Confession of Faith," being the first book printed in Connecticut; lot 2,171, "New-Haven's Settling in New-England," 1656, presque unique; lot 2,380, Roger Williams' Key into the Language of America; lot 2,410, the first work printed in Rhode Island, are especially notable, and deserve particular notice. Lots 2,507-17 form almost a complete series of the tracts relative to the New Hampshire Grants; they are all of the highest degree of rarity and interest, as much so to a Vermonter, as to a New Hampshire man.

I conclude with the remark that the diligent student of American history will find in this catalogue many books which cannot fail to aid him in his researches, and he cannot do better than to give to the catalogue itself a careful study. Although I have hazarded an opinion that the books enumerated are of a presumable value of at least one hundred dollars each, yet the chances of an auction are very varied, and a desiring buyer need not be deterred from bidding by any notion of mine. I may add the remark that a large proportion of the best works are most elegantly bound by Francis Bedford, of London, whose reputation as a skillful bookbinder is deservedly wide-spread.

This sale will begin at Clinton Hall, on Monday, March 10, and will proceed at the rate of about 400 lots per day.

RARE AND COSTLY BOOKS.

MR. BRINLEY'S MATCHLESS COLLECTION TO BE SOLD NEXT MONTH—A CATALOGUE OF THE RAREST AND MOST PRECIOUS EARLY-PRINTED AMERICAN BOOKS.

All the great libraries that have ever been sold in New York—the collections of Rice, of Fisher, of Wight, of Menzies, of Odell, and the rest—are to be pushed to subordinate places in the chronicles of the auction-room by the coming sale of the books of Mr. George Brinley, of Harford, which will begin at Leavitt's, March 10th. It is not a library that is to be sold, for that term implies a certain rounded completeness, but a collection of books, and the most extraordinary and valuable that has ever been sent to the auction-block in this country. Mr. Brinley was a true-born American, and there was love of country in his collecting. Leaving Caxton to Englishmen, and Aldus, Plantin, Koburger, Froben, and even Gutenberg himself, to the Continental bibliophiles, he applied himself, with untiring ardor and an open purse, to the collection of Americana. The result is a matchless assemblage of early-printed and exceedingly rare American books. Part I. of the catalogue, which covers the books to be sold next month, includes but a third of the collection: the remaining parts will be issued some months hence. It is impossible to make special mention of individual lots out of the 2,600 in the catalogue without exceeding our present limits. Suffice it to say that this collection is so complete as to make the Americana of the Menzies Library seem fragmentary. Few really important and valuable books belonging to the period and geographical section embraced in this catalogue are wanting, while it contains dozens that are so rare that there is no record of their previous sale, and some that are absolutely unique. There are five copies of Eliot's Indian Bible, a book that fetches $800 or $1,000 when in good condition; a most interesting collection relating to the Indian wars, many rare old almanacs, books on witchcraft, and the works of the Mathers and other reverend gentlemen of the colonial period—heavy reading, but precious in collectors' eyes. Indeed, as literature, this great collection is not to be compared even with the most modest library; but to the historian of our colonial days, to the philosopher who would study the earliest manifestations of the American intellect, and, most especially to the bibliomaniac, who cares not for history or philosophy, but with whom possession is the whole number of points enumerated by the law, these books are of deep interest and importance. The sale will last a week or more, and from the very considerable number of volumes that will sell for over $1,000 each, and the uncounted dozens that will fetch $100 or more, it may safely be predicted that the proceeds will be more than double those of any previous sale in this country, or, in stated figures, more than $100,000; how much more will depend upon the purses and spirit of the bidders.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down twenty-five per cent. on the dollar in part payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required, in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

3. The Lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within three days from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the vendors, on or before delivery: in default of which Messrs. GEO. A. LEAVITT & Co. will not hold themselves responsible, if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

4. In preparing the Catalogue, care has been taken to make the description of every book full and accurate, and every deficiency and imperfection which was discovered has been noted: but the sale of any Volume or Lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description. The books will be exposed for public exhibition one or more days, and will be sold just as they are without recourse.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

6. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale, if they think fit.

GEO. A. LEAVITT & CO.

PREFACE.

In compliance with positive directions given by the late Mr. George Brinley, his whole collection of books relating to America will be offered for sale by auction. The Catalogue of the First Part of this collection is now submitted to the public. Few of those into whose hands it is likely to fall need be informed that—within the field it covers—it comprises a greater number of volumes remarkable for their rarity, value, and interest to special collectors and to book-lovers in general, than were ever before brought together in an American sale-room. The titles of the books and tracts, though rarely given without abbreviation, will be found sufficiently full to distinguish the edition or impression, and accuracy of description as regards binding and general condition has been aimed at, throughout. All imperfections discovered by the compiler of the catalogue have been pointed out; though a rigorous collation of every volume was, under the circumstances, impossible.

Some critical readers may object to the frequent recurrence of the terms “scarce,” “rare,” “superlatively rare,” and so on; and if such terms have been misapplied the objection is certainly a valid one. But it is believed that a thorough examination of the catalogue will show that reference to the rarity of a book or tract has been omitted when it might fairly have been made, ten times as often as it has been made without warrant of critical bibliography. Turn, for example, to the collection of “Books printed in New England, 1640–1709” (pages 87–126), and to that of the “Works of the Mathers” (pp. 127–176), and of the six hundred and fifty consecutive titles there are scarcely twenty that any American bibliographer could hesitate to mark “rare,” or “very rare.”

The general plan of the Catalogue is indicated, as regards the First Part, by the table of Contents, prefixed. The arrangement—it can hardly be called a classification—is substantially that which was adopted by Mr. Brinley himself, for his book-shelves. A strictly alphabetical arrangement, by authors' names or titles, would perhaps have been more acceptable to bibliographers, but the extent of the library rendered such an arrangement impracticable, and it seemed inappropriate to the sale-catalogue of a library which is not less remarkable for the completeness of its collections in special departments, than by the number of its titles.

The Second Part will comprise books relating to New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware, with special collections of works printed by William Bradford, Reynier Jansen, A. Bradford, S. Keimer, Christopher Sauer, Benjamin Franklin, and other early printers, and a collection of works relating to the Quakers; Maryland, Virginia, and the Southern colonies and states; the American Revolution; Washingtoniana; the United States, since the establishment of Independence; the West, California, and the Pacific coast; Mexico, Central America, the West Indies, and South America; the American Indians, and their Languages; American Biography; American Poetry; and Books printed in America from 1709 to 1776.

The Third Part will include American Bibles; Psalmody, and Music; books relating to Episcopacy in the U. States, Methodism, the Baptists, and other denominations; Arts and Sciences; Education, including early School Books; Chap Books (a large and curious collection); Bibliography, Catalogues, etc.; Miscellaneous Works; Almanacs; Broad-sides; Maps, Prints, and Autographs.

A volume of remarkable interest to American collectors. It contains RICHARD EDEN'S copy of Peter Martyr, and the one, manifestly, which he used in translating "The Decades of the Newe Worlde," printed in 1555. It has his autograph on the title-page, and its margins and two blank pages are full of his MANUSCRIPT NOTES, explanations, and references, among which he has, here and there, roughly sketched little outline maps of islands, etc., mentioned in the text, e. g. "Insula Caniballum vel Caribum." On a guard-leaf, he has drawn "Hispaniola," on a somewhat larger scale than the margin permitted, writing the designations of prominent features of the coast.

This edition of Peter Martyr was reprinted from that of Alcalá of 1516, with the addition (ll. 68-75) of an abstract of the fourth decade, "de Insulis nuper inuentis." See Trömel, No. 5; Harris, pp. 301; Sabin's Dictionary, No. 1557. Bound with it, is an edition (same date and press) of Biondo's Epitome of the historical Decades of Æneas Sylvius (Pope Pius II.).

The volume has the book-plates of Thomas Robinson, Fellow of Merton College, and "Joannis Milner, A. M. è Coll. Sti. Petri, Cantab.," and the autographs of several other possessors, the latest being that of "Jno. Davis" (of Plymouth). At the sale of Judge Davis's library, 1847, it was purchased by Mr. Geo. F. Guild, from whose library it came to Mr. Brinley, in 1853.

sheets joined in one, old French mottled calf gilt, not rubbed.
4° Paris, chez Claude Collet, 1632
- AN EXCEPTIONALLY FINE copy of the Best Edition of Champlain. It was obtained, a few years ago, from a private library in France, in which, apparently, it had rested undisturbed since it received its 17th century binding. The description and collation agree with Sabin's (Dictionary, No. 11839) and Field's (Ind. Bibliog., No. 268), except in two particulars. The map has the inscription: "Faicte l'an 1632 par le sieur de Champlain," and, its two sheets having been joined in one, it is inserted in its proper place, after p. 210 of the Second Part, and immediately before the "Table pour cognoistre les lievx remarquables en ceste Carte." (It is usually found—when found at all—at the end of the volume, separated from its Table of Reference, by the "Traité de la Marine" and specimens of the Indian Languages.) The "blank leaf" after page 210 (the 4th leaf of Qq.) has been removed, or cut down to form a guard. The united sheets of the map measure 33½ by 20½ inches, between the outer lines of the border. The impression is excellent; and so are the impressions of the five copper-plates, pp. 245, 250, 265, 291, and 304.

Only a tolerably good copy of this EXTREMELY RARE tract. A (blank) corner is torn from the Title-leaf and the bottom line slightly cut into by the binder; and the 2d and 3d prelim. leaves have lost their inner corners, at the bottom, the missing words having been supplied in manuscript; a few words and letters are gone from the outer margin of pp. 15-16.
For some account of this remarkable publication, "arraigning [Gov.] Dudley, with unbounded severity," see Palfrey's Hist. of N. England, iv. 304-310. The Dedication is signed, A. H.—probably, for Alexander Holmes, one of the subscribers to the Memorial against Dudley, to the Queen. The absurdity of attributing the authorship of this tract to the Rev. John Higginson of Salem—aged 92—will be apparent to any one who reads a single page of it. Dr. Palfrey, with more probability, suggests (p. 310) that "Cotton Mather was concerned in the composition:" but "the smartness and pedantry of the style" are as characteristic of Rev. John Wise of Chebacco (who had an old grudge against Dudley) as of Mather.

"The [sermon] of Mr. Morrill, being a New Hampshire production, particularly interested me," wrote John Farmer, Esq., to a former owner of this volume, in 1833: "I knew not before seeing this that Mr. M. ever published anything. The good man, if now living, might with as much propriety assail the enormous sleeves of the present day, as he did the 'hoop'd coats' of our great grandmothers."—M.S. note. Mr. Morrill's Sermon was printed at "Boston in New England, for Richard Jenness and Joseph Lock in the Parish of Rye, 1728." (The allusion to "hoop'd-coats" is on p. 27. The preacher "looked upon it to be very unseemly and unbecoming, for Persons to dress themselves up in their forlorn Hoop'd-Coats, to appear before God in his House.")

- "Ned Ward" was a graceless scamp. His "Trip to New-England" fairly matches — if it does not surpass — the Rev. Sam. Peters's "History of Connecticut." The latter seems to have taken a hint for one of his "blue-laws" from Ward's story (p. 173) of "a Captain of a ship, who had been a long voyage, happened to meet his wife, and kissed her in the street [of Boston], for which he was fined 10 shillings," — the offences of "open kissing and of fornication being both of a price; and another inhabitant of the town was fin'd ten shillings for kissing his own wife in his garden," and was whipped for refusing to pay the fine. Drake (Hist. of Boston, 515, 516) makes some extracts from this naughty (and very scarce) book.

The two title-pages were printed from the same types—these changes excepted, and the substitution of a short for a long f, in the third line. NARRATIVES OF CAPTIVITIES.

- 30.00 469 BROWN (THOMAS) A Plain Narrativ[e] of the uncommon Sufferings and Remarkable Deliverance of Thomas Brown, of Charlestown, in New-England; Who returned to his Father's House the Beginning of Jan. 1760, after having been absent three years and about eight months: Containing An Account of the Engagement between a Party of English commanded by Major Rogers, and a Party of French and Indians, in Jan. 1757, in which Capt. Perhaps the RAREST of all Narratives of Indian Captivities. The title has escaped both Mr. Sabin and Mr. Field, and is not to be found in any catalogue I have consulted, except in Haven's (Am. Antiq. Soc.) in which it was entered from Mr. Brinley's copy. It is — apart from its extreme rarity — a highly interesting tract.

The Narrative of Capt. John Fillmore (the great grandfather of President Fillmore) is EXCESSIVELY RARE. In thirty years' search for Connecticut imprints, I have not found a second copy. The "cuts" on page 8 of this edition of Mrs. Smith's Captivity deserve notice. The rendering of the group of Indians, about to assail the peaceful home of the Smiths, is inimitable.

The Second Edition was printed in 1655 (see Stevens's "Nuggets," no. 2270). This volume, which is now RARE, is dedicated to the Governors and Ministers of New-England by J. St. N., "An Adventurer in the first Plantation." The author was rector of Lutterworth, in Leicestershire; a friend of the Rev. Ephraim Huit, who came to N. E. in 1639, and became Mr. Warham's colleague at Windsor (Conn.), to which place Mr. St. N. intended to follow him. He decided, however, to remain in England, where, in 1657, he married a daughter of Anthony Grey, the puritan rector of Burbach, afterwards Earl of Kent. See Palmer's Calamy, iii. 119; Crosby's Hist. of Engl. Baptists, iii. 34; Nichols's Hist. of Leicestershire, iv. 463, 269.

On the inside of the cover of this copy is the autograph, partially erased, of [President] "Ezra Stiles, 1760. E libris Rev. Edwardi Taylor de Westfield."

200 661 SHEPARD (T.) Certain Select Cases Resolved. With The First Principles of the Oracles of God, pp. (8), 112. n. p. [London], 1695. — Four Necessary Cases of Conscience, of Daily Use. Resolved in a Letter of Mr. T. Shepheard, to a Dear Friend of his; now published by that Friend, with an addition of something of his own . . By R. H. pp. (24), 101, (21), 133, (4). London, n. d. Two in one vol., old binding. 24°

Dedicated by R. H. "To his dear and only Son, R. H. now a Student of . . Grayes Inne." "To the Reader" (10 pp.) contains a brief memoir of Shepard. Shepard's letter occupies pp. 1-101. It is followed by a Discourse on John 6. 27, by R. H. (pp. 133), with a dedicatory epistle to his "two daughters Margaret and Elizabeth."

The names of the daughters and their ages ("the elder drawing near to sixteen years," and the younger "now thirteen years,") sufficiently identify R. H., the "dear friend" to whom Shepard's letter was addressed, with RICHARD HARLAKENDEN, Esq., of Earls-Colne in Essex, the elder brother of Roger Harlakenden who came with Mr. Shepard to New England and became a member of his church in Cambridge. Their sister Mabel married John Haynes, governor of Massachusetts and first governor of Connecticut. During Mr. Shepard's ministry at Earls Colne the Harlakenden family had been his warm friends, and had done all in their power to protect him from the persecution which finally drove him from England. Richard Harlakenden's first wife was Alice, daughter of Sir Henry Mildmay, by whom he had the son Richard to whom this volume is dedicated. By his second wife, Mary Denny, he had three daughters, Margaret, Mary, and Elizabeth. Mary died young. The others were about sixteen and thirteen years of age, respectively, in 1651 — which fixes, nearly, the date of publication.

The volume must be VERY RARE. It seems to have escaped the notice of English and American bibliographers, of the editors of Shepard's works, and of all his biographers. It is not named in the catalogues of the Prince, Am. Antiquarian Society's, Harvard College, or Mass. Hist. Society's libraries, nor in any other which the writer of this note has consulted.

[Fast] Sermon, at Roxbury, pp. (4), 16, crimson mor. extra (Bedford). 4° Boston, for Job How and John Allen; sold at Mr. Samuel Green's, 1687

EXTREMELY RARE. Not in the Prince, Mass. Historical Society, or Boston Athenæum Catalogues. I. Thomas had "seen no book with John Allen's name in the imprint earlier than 1690" (Hist. of Printing, i. 285), and does not mention Job How, in his list of Boston booksellers. (See Mr. Brinley's note, on guard-leaf.)

The Sermon "was preached on a solemn Fast-Day occasioned by the afflictive Providence of God in sending Worms and Caterpillars, which in some places, as God's great Army, marched in numerous Companies, and devoured all before them,"—hence called Army Worms.

- 55.00 698 ALLIN (JOHN) of Dedham. Animadversions upon the Antisynodalia Americana, a Treatise Printed in Old England, in the Name of the Dissenting Brethren in the Synod held at Boston, 1662, pp. (6), 82, crushed levant green mor. extra, full gilt, paneled sides, inside borders (Bedford).
 4° Cambridge, S. G[reen] and M. F[ohnson] for Hezekiah Usher, 1664
 EXTREMELY RARE. Large, clean, and bright copy.

ALMANACS, PRINTED AT CAMBRIDGE, 1646-1650.

These five Almanacs (Nos. 699-703)—every one of which is believed to be UNIQUE—belonged to the Rev. Samuel Hough (Haugh), Minister of Reading, Mass., whose name appears on the title-page of the Almanac for 1649. They were interleaved by him, and contain many manuscript entries, some of which are of much historical value, and nearly all are of interest to New England antiquaries. They passed into the possession of Judge Sewall (the guardian of Mr. Hough's grand-children), and remained in the Sewall family until they were purchased, not many years ago, by the late Mr. John K. Wiggins of Boston, who sold them to Mr. Brinley. An endorsement on the cover of one of them shows that they were loaned to Mr. John Farmer in 1824, and again in 1833. Mr. Farmer communicated to Mr. Savage some of Mr. Haugh's notes—particularly, the one which records, against June 15, 1648, the first execution in New England for Witchcraft (see Savage's Winthrop, ii. 326, note).

Thomas (Hist. of Printing, i. 234), names Danforth's Almanacks for 1647, -8, -9, and Oakes's "Astronomical Calculations," "1648, about," among books printed by Stephen Day. It is plain, however, that he had not seen all—if any—of them. The Almanac for 1646 (which has lost its title-page), was doubtless by STEPHEN DAY—the first printer at the first Anglo-American press. That of 1647 has the UNIQUE imprint of MATTHEW DAY, the son of Stephen,—a printer not mentioned by Thomas; and the Almanac for 1648 must also have been his work, though his name does not appear in the imprint. (These two almanacs have the title within a border made up of figures representing the phases of the moon.) Matthew Day died in May, 1649. No printer's name appears on the Almanacs for 1649 and 1650. On the latter, the name of Samuel Danforth, as author, is omitted, and in its place stands the Latin line, "Parvum parva decent." This identifies the Almanac with the "little parcel of astronomical calculations, with this apposite verse in the title-page," which, as Cotton Mather states, was published by URIAN OAKES, while a student at Harvard. (Thomas, misled by Mather's title, enters "Astronomical Calculations. By a Youth [Urian Oakes]," as of "1648, about," and says it is not ascertained when or by whom it was printed.) There is no doubt that the Almanacs for 1649 and 1650—which are precisely alike, typographically,—were printed by SAMUEL GREEN; and the former is the FIRST work known to be his,—the Cambridge Platform, printed late in 1649, being the first work having his name (or initials) in the imprint.

Thus, the five tracts comprise specimens of the work of the FIRST THREE PRINTERS in English America; the ONLY known work of one, and the FIRST work of another of the three.

 same year, "Mr. Shepheard ordained;" and, May 5, "Mr. Eliot, 1 Kings 18. 21"—naming well-known "Sewall Almanac" series, invaluable to N. E. historians and antiquaries.

These 18 Almanacs are from the volume of Judge Sewall's "Interleaved Almanacs," once in the possession of Mr. Frederic Kidder, by whom extracts from their printed and manuscript pages were communicated to the N. The author has two pages of verse "Ad Librum," and at the foot of the calendar pages gives a useful "Memorial of some Remarkable Occurrences in N. E. since 1678." In his verses, he alludes to himself as a "Harvardine." (The inner corners of the last three leaves, torn; but nothing lost.)

Boston, S. Green for Benj. Harris.

The first of the very popular series of Almanacs made by John Tulley. They are all — but especially the earlier years — EXTREMELY RARE. This Almanac for 1687 was the first New-England almanac in which the holidays of the Episcopal church were entered in the calendar, and the first that began the year with the month of January. Opposite to Jan. 30, is the entry, "King Charles murdered."

On the last page is an "Epitaph upon John Tulley," and advertisements of two books by Increase and Cotton Mather. The Preface was probably written by Cotton Mather.

8° Boston, B. Green & J. Allen.

JUDGE SEWALL'S COPIES, with his MANUSCRIPT ENTRIES, on the wrappers and margins. The Almanac for 1700 was Clough's FIRST. His last was published, after his death, in 1708. In 1705 (the year that N. Whittemore's first Almanac was published), the imprint has "B. Green for Benj. Eliot," and in 1706 and 1707, "B. Green for Benj. Eliot and Nich. Boone."

Mr. Brinley's set — comprising seven of the nine published in Clough's name — is more nearly complete than any other known. Its interest, as well as its intrinsic value, is much enhanced by Sewall's manuscript memoranda.

with A Caution to prevent Scandal, 4 pp., dark blue morocco extra,
EXTREMELY RARE. 8° n. p. 1693
No title-page. Signed, on p. 4, by "Benjamin Bosworth of New-England. In the 81st Year of My Age, 1693." The author was a planter of Hingham, Mass., as early as 1635.

His son, of the same name, married a daughter of Secretary Nathaniel Morton, author of the Memorial.

The special signs of apostasy by which the poet's spirit was darkened were periwigs and top-knots:—

"When Perriwigs in Thrones and Pulpits get,
And Hairy Top-knots in high Seats are set;
Then may we Pray, have Mercy LORD on us,
That in New-England it should now be thus!"

Probably UNIQUE. This Declaration of War against the Narragansets is subscribed by "Jo: Winthrop President, In the name of all the Commissioners," &c. Hutchinson, who printed it, in his Collection of Papers (138-146) from a manuscript copy, had "never met with it in print." It was again printed, from the MSS. Records of the Commissioners, (with many errors) in Hazard's Collection, ii. 45-48. The following entry, in an "Account of Expenses layd out for the County," Aug. 1645 to Oct. 1646 (Mass. Archives, xxx. doc. 9), shows the number of copies printed: "First, for y^e printing of five hundred Declarations, 4l. 00. 00." Of the five hundred, Mr. Brinley's is the ONLY KNOWN COPY. It is one of the EARLIEST productions of the Cambridge press; the THIRD, in order of time, of which any copy is extant — preceded only by the Bay Psalm Book and the list of Theses at the Commencement of the (Harvard) College, in 1643, of which the single known copy (imperfect) is in the Library of the Mass. Historical Society.

New England had suffered by "the Antinomians," "the Gortonians," "Muggletonians," and other Elves and Hobgoblins,"—and now, "by our dear Friends, Presbyterians, Semi-Presbyterians, Apostates on the one side, Independents, Separatists, Morellians, Semi-Anabaptists, and less offensively, Anastates on single other side," . . . sm. 8° Cambridge, Printed by Marmaduke Johnson, 1665

"Although a few copies printed, yet it is NOT PUBLISHED."—Preface.

"This copy is the one referred to by Dr. Francis, in his Life of J. Eliot, in Sparks' American Biography."—G. B. It formerly belonged to the Rev. Dr. Thaddeus Mason Harris of Dorchester, Mass., who has left this note, on a guard leaf: "As this little book was not published, and 'but very few copies printed,' it has become so scarce that this may be considered the only copy. The like may be said of the tract which contains 'The Dying Speeches of some Indians.'" (See No. 765.)

The only other known copy of this book was in the library of Mr. Menzies, and was then believed by Mr. Sabin to be UNIQUE. See the Menzies Catalogue, no. 666. It is, doubtless, "THE FIRST PRIVATELY PRINTED AMERICAN BOOK."

4.00 761 ELIOT (JOHN) The Harmony of the Gospels, in the Holy History of the Humiliation and Sufferings of Jesus Christ, from his Incarnation to his Death and Burial, pp. (4), 131, red levant morocco extra, elegantly panded sides, g. e. (Bedford).

A LARGE and VERY FINE copy, which well deserves its splendid binding, in Mr. Bedford's best style, russet-red levant morocco, the sides richly gilt, in exquisite designs, in the English Harleian style, inside borders, g. e. In a note which accompanied this volume, Mr. Bedford writes: "I have bestowed my utmost care on this book, to make it a perfect specimen of elegant Early English binding. 8° Boston, John Foster, 1699

45.00 765 ELIOT (JOHN) The Dying Speeches of several Indians.

8° n. p., n. d., [Cambridge, 168-]

Title, verso blank (2 pp.), Preface by John Eliot, 1 p., verso blank; Dying Speeches, pp. 2-12; 1 p. blank. The Title is printed lengthwise of the first page (from top to bottom). In his prefatory note, Eliot says: "These things are Printed not so much for Publishment, as to save charge for writing out of Copies for those that did desire them." This is the ONLY KNOWN COPY. It is in perfect condition, clean and bright, elegantly bound (by P. Bedford) in dark-blue levant morocco, full gilt back, panded sides, with center and corner ornaments, and rich inside borders.

The Am. Antiquarian Society's Catalogue gives the title under the year 1663. This is considerably too early. The tract contains several references to matters that occurred after the termination of the Indian War, in 1677. It probably was printed at about the same time with the second edition of the Indian Bible, between 1680 and 1683, or a little later.

Fine copy of this EXTREMELY RARE Sermon I know of but one other copy—which is in the Am. Antiquarian Society's library. "Major Mason" is, of course, the famous Major John, the commander in the Pequot War,—whose daughter Priscilla was the wife of Mr. Fitch.

- 350 767 FITCH (JAMES) An Holy Connexion, Or a true Agreement Between Jehovahs being a Wall of Fire to his People, and the Glory in the midst thereof, pp. (4), 20, red morocco, top gilt, UNCUT. 4° Cambridge, Samuel Green, 1674

- 455 772 Further Quæries Upon the Present State of the New-English Affairs. [Signed S. E.] pp. 11, red morocco extra, g. e. (Pratt).

sm. 4° n. t. p. n. p. n. d. [Boston or Cambridge, 1690]

A prefatory note to Mr. Sabin's reprint of this EXTREMELY RARE tract describes it as "printed in London, during the latter part of 1689 or the beginning of 1690." The internal evidence that it was printed either at Boston or Cambridge, between February and May, 1690, seems conclusive. The sack of Schenectady by the French and Indians (Feb. 8, 1690) is alluded to, p. 11. The fact that all the depositions printed on pages 12-14 are made by Salem men, and the suggestion, in the last paragraph, that it "would be convenient for Salem, the oldest town in the Colony," to take the lead" in establishing a provisional government under the old Charter, may perhaps furnish a clue to the authorship.

- 25.00 773 GOSPEL ORDER REVIVED, Being an Answer to a Book lately set forth by the Reverend Mr. Increase Mather, President of Harvard Colledge, &c., Entitled The Order of the Gospel, &c. . . By sundry Ministers of the Gospel in New-England, 6 prelim. leaves, pp. 40, half dk. blue levant mor. extra, top gilt, (Bedford), UNCUT.

4° n. p. [NEW YORK, WILLIAM BRADFORD,] 1700

On the verso of a leaf preceding the Title is the ADVERTISEMENT: "The Reader is desired to take Notice that the Press in Boston is so much under the aw of the Reverend Author, whom we answer, and his Friends, that we could not obtain of the Printer there to print the following Sheets, which is the only true Reason why we have sent the Copy so far for its Impression, and where it was printed with some Difficulty." See Thomas's History of Printing (1st ed.), ii. 90, 458, and the Menzies Catalogue, no. 817. The authorship of this pamphlet has been attributed to the Rev. Messrs. John Woodbridge, Benj. Colman, and Simon Bradstreet (Sibley's Harvard Graduates, 455). EXCESSIVELY RARE, and, in such condition, perhaps UNIQUE.

[Though this book was not "printed in New England," yet considering its authorship, its relation to Mather's "Order of the Gospel" (see No. 1010), and to the anonymous "Collection of some of the Offensive Matter" &c. (No. 1086), and its connection with the history of the Boston press, it seems proper to place it here.]

4° Boston, John Foster, 1676

The greater part of the edition of this Sermon seems to have been bound up with copies of the author's "Narrative of the Troubles with the Indians." Separate copies are EXTREMELY RARE. It has possessed a high bibliographical interest, having been regarded, on the authority of Thomas, as THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN BOSTON. The present Catalogue, however, compels us to assign precedence to two tracts by Increase Mather (Nos. 1045 and 1040), printed in 1675, and to the (Boston) Almanac for 1676 (see No. 707).

(A to verso of N 2); Catechism, 1 leaf; 1 blank leaf. The autograph of Bishop White Kennett is at the foot of the English title-page.

Mr. B. Quaritch, from whom Mr. Brinley purchased this copy, wrote, in 1869, "I believe it must be the finest copy in the world." Certainly, in completeness, size, and condition, it leaves nothing to be desired. It has not only the Dedication, which was inserted in very few (probably not more than twenty-five) copies, but it has both the English and the Indian titles. The leaf measures 7¾ by 5½ inches. The binding is one of Mr. F. BEDFORD'S masterpieces; in best levant grosgrained brown morocco, sides double paneled, blind and gold, with centre ornaments; gilt edges; enclosed in a Solander case of blue morocco, lettered.

It was bought by Mr. B. Quaritch, from the Library of L. H. Petit, Esq., in 1869, and the same year, was added to Mr. Brinley's collection. The name of H. [Sir Henry?] Hobart is written on the title-page. It is absolutely complete, and in the best condition, throughout. The leaf measures 7⅞ by 5¾ inches.

Title (Indian), 1 leaf; Dedication to the Hon. Robert Boyle, Governor, and to the Company for the Propagation of the Gospel, &c. 1 leaf (verso blank); Old Test., A to Ppppp, in fours; names of the Books, 1 leaf (recto blank); N. Test. Title (as above), 1 leaf, verso blank; Text, A 2 to Kk 2; Psalms in Metre, 53 leaves, n. n., Kk 3 to Yy 4; Catechism, 1 leaf; and 1 blank leaf.

From the Library of the late Marquis of Hastings, Donnington Park, Leicestershire. In the original calf binding, well preserved, back gilt, lettered "SS. BIBLIA INDICA NOVE ANGLIÆ." The leaf measures 7⅞ by 5⅞ inches. In all respects a REMARKABLY FINE copy, to which the Dedication to Boyle imparts EXTRAORDINARY RARITY. Only three copies containing this Dedication are known, and two of these are in public libraries.

4° Cambridge, Samuel Green, 1685, 1680

A NOBLE COPY, which is probably rendered UNIQUE by a happy blunder of the original binder. It wants the "Catechism" (a single leaf) at the end; but it has the General Title, in duplicate, one at the beginning of the volume, and the other at the end of the Old Testament. Mr. Henry Stevens, of whom this copy was purchased by Mr. Brinley in 1871, explains the presence of the second title, in this way: "Sheet Ppppp, the end of the Old Testament, is bound up as originally printed; that is, Ppppp 1 is the end of the O. T., ending on the reverse; Ppppp 2 is a blank leaf; Ppppp 3 is the title to the Old and New Testament, reverse blank; and Ppppp 4 is blank on the recto, and has the List of the Books on the verso. The cut-out of the two middle leaves of this sheet, then makes the blank leaf and the title at the front of the book. In this copy, these two leaves are in duplicate, and as clean and fresh as they were in 1685." With these exceptions (and the absence of the Dedication), the collation is the same as for No. 789.

The leaf measures $7\frac{7}{8}$ inches tall by very nearly 6 inches wide. In the upper corner of the (first) title is the autograph of "Jo. Baily. Jan. 1. [16]8 $\frac{7}{8}$ N. E." (the Rev. John Baily, minister of Watertown, and assistant minister of the First Church, Boston, 1693-97). On the blank leaf preceding the title, is the fine autograph of "Grindall Rawson | His Indian Bible | Given him By his Father | 1712." The writer, minister of Mendon, Mass., 1680-1715, was much engaged in the Indian work, and was able to preach to the Indians in their own language. He translated for them Cotton's Milk for Babes (No. 783) and the Confession of Faith of 1680 (No. 784). He was a son of Secretary Edward Rawson, who gave him this Indian Bible.

The binding, executed under Mr. Stevens's direction, is in the best style, in blue gros-grain levant morocco, sides filleted and paneled, blind and gold, with centre ornaments, the back paneled, broad inside borders of elegant design, on a lining of red levant morocco; enclosed in a dark green morocco box, lined with white velvet, gilt and lettered.

- 791 — ELIOT (JOHN) The Indian Grammar Begun: or, An Essay to bring the Indian Language into Rules, &c., pp. (4), 66, best levant dk. blue morocco, paneled sides, corners ornamented, inside borders (Bedford). 4° Cambridge, Marmaduke Johnson, 1666

See the Collation, &c. in Proceedings Am. Antig. Society, No. 61, p. 62.

This seems to be the edition from which that of 1720 was reprinted. The two agree, page for page, and line for line nearly, but there is a difference in the type. As this contains Rawson's translation of Cotton's "Milk for Babes," it was probably printed after or not long before 1691. It may be of the edition of 1687, mentioned in Isaiah Thomas's list of books printed by Samuel Green (Hist. of Printing, I. 263.) It is, so far as is known, UNIQUE.

A LARGE, SOUND, and FINE copy of the FIRST REVISION of the Province Laws, with the original editions of the Sessions-Acts, to 1714. In old paneled calf, well preserved, with engraved book-plate of "Joseph Murray Esq. of the Inner Temple."

EXCESSIVELY RARE and, with regard to condition and completeness, perhaps UNIQUE. In the Preface to the new edition of the Province Laws (1869), the Commissioners, Messrs. Ames and Goodell, speak of "the extreme scarcity of the early impressions. . . The editions of 1699 and 1714 are among the rarest of rare books; and the copies of them now extant are usually found without the supplements." The collection in the Secretary's office of Massachusetts, which "is probably more nearly perfect than it is possible to make another," "does not include original impressions of the sessions-acts printed from and after the May session of 1711-2 until the May session of 1714, which are not known to be extant." — Preface, p. xvii.

This was the first appearance in print of Dudley's Letter, "the most interesting as well as the most authentic document in our early annals."

SUPERLATIVELY RARE, if not UNIQUE. Cotton Mather (Magnalia, bk. III, pt. iv, c. 6) says — with his habitual inexactness — that Mr. Oxenbridge "published a Sermon about Seasonable seeking of God." It is evident that Eliot (Biogr. Dictionary), Allen, Sprague (Congr. Annals, i, 171), Emerson (in Hist. of First Church), and others have taken the fact and the title from Mather, without having seen the Sermon itself. The title has not been found in any published catalogue (except the Am. Antiq. Society's Catalogue of Ante-Revolutionary Publications, to which it was communicated by Mr. Brinley), and the writer has not seen or heard of any second copy. Mr. Brinley had entered it as anonymous, not having identified it with Mather's "Sermon about Seasonable Seeking." — T.

- 250 844 [PROPOSITIONS CONCERNING the Subject of Baptism and Consociation of Churches, Collected and Confirmed out of the Word of God, by a Synod of Elders and Messengers of the Churches . . . Assembled at Boston, . . . In the Year 1662,] pp. 1-28, wants title, preface, and last two leaves (pp. 29-32) of "The Answer of the Elders." 4° [Cambridge, S. G. for Hezekiah Usher at Boston, 1662]

An imperfect copy of the EXTREMELY RARE original edition of the result of the Synod of 1662. For the reprint, with the "Answer of the Dissenting Brethren" annexed, see the following number.

- 2600 845 PROPOSITIONS CONCERNING the Subject of Baptism and Consociation of Churches; collected and confirmed out of the Word of God, by a SYNOD OF ELDERS and MESSENGERS of the Churches in Massachusetts Colony, . assembled at Boston according to the Appointment of the Honoured General Court, In the Year 1662. . . Whereunto is anext the ANSWER of the DISSENTING BRETHREN, &c., best blue levant morocco extra, g. c. (Bedford).

4° n. p. [London], Printed in the Year, 1662

Title, 1 leaf; The Preface to the Christian Reader, 12 pp.; The Answer of the Elders &c., pp. 1-18; Anti-Synodalia Scripta Americana, or a Proposal of the Judgment of the Dissenting Messengers, &c. [by President Charles Chauncy,] pp. 1-38.

This is the English reprint of the "Propositions" with the addition of Chauncy's Anti-Synodalia, separately paged, but without a special title-page. Thomas (Hist. of Printing, i. 255) puts this edition of the Anti-Synodalia ("4to. 38 pages," 1662) in the list of books printed at Cambridge by Samuel Green, and says it "was reprinted in London." It is nearly certain that no American edition had been printed when, in February, 1664, the Rev. John Allin published his "Animadversions upon the Anti-Synodalia Americana, a Treatise printed in Old England." In his preface Mr. Allin mentions the Antisynodalia which "came to our hands" and "another Essay [John Davenport's] of the same nature [which] was here published." The type of the n. p. volume of 1662 differs from that of the Cambridge edition of the "Propositions" (see No. 844) and is unlike any that Green is known to have used in Cambridge. The Massachusetts edition has the full imprint: "Cambridge: Printed by S. G. for Hezekiah Usher at Boston in New-England. 1662."

This copy has, at the foot of the title-page, the autograph inscription of "John Cotton his booke, given him by his Brother Mr. Increase Mather."

- 24 846 PROPOSITIONS CONCERNING the Subject of Baptism etc. . . . Whereunto is anext the ANSWER of the Dissenting Brethren, &c. Another copy, broken levant mor., gilt, rich inside borders, g. c. (Bedford).

THE BAY PSALM BOOK.

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN THE ANGLO-AMERICAN COLONIES.

- 00,00 847 The | Whole | Booke of Psalmes | Faithfully | Translated into English | Metre; | Whereunto is prefixed a discourse de-clar- ing not only the lawfullnes, but also | the necessity of the heavenly Ordinance | of singing Scripture Psalmes in | the Churches of | God. | 8° [Cambridge, Stephen Daye,] Imprinted 1640

A BEAUTIFUL and ABSOLUTELY PERFECT copy; having the additional page of "Faults escaped in printing." The binding — one of Mr. F. BEDFORD'S master-pieces — is in dark brown crushed levant morocco, the sides studded with gold stars, within broad gilt borders, with corner and center ornaments; and the volume is enclosed in a Solander case of blue, straight-grained morocco, lettered.

For a description and collation, see Thomas's Hist. of Printing, i. 231, 232, and the Prince Library Catalogue.

To offer any remarks on the RARITY or the IMPORTANCE of this precious volume would be sheer impertinence. The acquisition of a copy of the original edition of the Bay Psalm Book must always be the crowning triumph to which every American collector aspires,—while the chances of acquisition are constantly diminishing. It is by no means probable that another copy will be offered for competition within the next quarter of a century, at least.

Mr. Brinley's copy with the date of 1647, wherever printed, may fairly be regarded as the second edition, and, so far as known, is UNIQUE. . . 12° Cambridge, | Printed for Hezekiah Usher, of Boston (sic), n. d.

EXTREMELY RARE. The New England version (Bay Psalm Book), as revised and improved by Dunster and Lyon, in 1650. Mr. Thomas believed this to be the third edition of the revision, and the fifth including all from 1640. "The printing," he observes, "is executed by a good workman, and is the best that I have seen from the Cambridge press. I conclude, therefore, it could not be printed by Green before the arrival of Marmaduke Johnson in 1660; I have no doubt it was printed under Johnson's care; and, probably, soon after the Indian Bible came from the press in 1663." See his long note, in History of Printing, i. 257-8; and compare a note in Mr. Haven's (Am. Antiq. Society's) Catalogue, under the year 1665, suggesting that "it is doubtful whether the printing was done in this country or in England . . . Mr. Lenox thinks this may be the fifth edition, and the first that was printed in two columns."

4° [Boston, Samuel Green, 1682]

Probably UNIQUE, and of EXTRAORDINARY INTEREST, imperfect as it is. At the top of the first page is written, in the hand of Thomas Prince: "By page 6, was written in 1681. Mr. B. Green sen'r says this was printed at Boston by his bro. Samuel's letter [i. e. types]." On the page referred to, the author speaks of what he did, "having by accident, some respite time this year 1681," in September, and on p. 7, mentions the result "in 6 months"—which brings the date of publication as late as March, 1681-2. It contains information, not elsewhere to be found, respecting the origin and history of the project for a Land Bank of Credit, and the introduction of Paper Money. (See No. 726.)

858 SEWALL (SAMUEL) Phænomena quædam Apocalyptica ad Aspectum NOVI ORBIS configurata. Or, some few Lines towards a description of the New Heaven, as it makes to those who stand upon the New Earth. By Samuel Sewall, sometime Fellow of Harvard Colledge at Cambridge, French grosgr. blue morocco extra, full gilt, inside borders (Bedford).

4° Boston, Barth. Green and John Allen, 1697

Title; a dedicatory epistle to Sir William Ashurst, 2 pp.; another dedicatory address to Governor Stoughton, 3 pp.; Psalm 139, 7-10 (in metre), 1 p.; Some Few Lines, &c., pp. 60.

The FIRST EDITION of Sewall's very curious and—in spite of its title—amusing book, is EXTREMELY RARE. The learned and pious author labors "to expose the antick fancy of America's being Hell"—the "Sedem Inferorum" to which Christ descended,—or even the Apocalyptic Gog and Magog; but he honestly confesses (p. 40) that "there is so much Confusion in the discourses upon this subject, that a man cannot tell when he is in Heaven and when he is in Hell," and that "so near an approach to, so compleat a resemblance of Hell, was not to be found in rerum natura" as in America.

859 SEWALL (SAMUEL) Phænomena quædam Apocalyptica ad Aspectum NOVI ORBIS configurata. Another copy; autograph of Thomas Prince, 1708, front margins too close and unevenly cut, but top and bottom uncut.

The Third Edition (pp. 1-15); and Appendix (pp. 16-24). Large and fine copy, nearly uncut. Boston, Barth. Green, 1727. — An Answer to Some Cases of Conscience Respecting the Country. By Solomon Stoddard, uncut. pp. 15, n. t. p. Boston, B. Green, 1722. — Verses, (by S. Sewall?) "Wednesday, January 1, 1701. A little before Break-a-day, at Boston," n. p., n. d., 1 p. Four in one vol., half mor., neat.

4° Boston, v. y.

Almost as RARE as the earlier edition. See the Menzies Catalogue, no. 1794. Judge Sewall has appended to his own work, Willard's Sermon on "the National Conversion of the Jews," first published in 1700, but already "for some time out of print." In the accompanying tract, the Rev. Solomon Stoddard closes his examination of "Cases of Conscience," touching the "wearing of long Hair," "thoughts concerning Periwigs," &c., with the suggestion that "There be many other Practices that are plainly contrary to the Light of Nature. HOOPED Petticoats have something of Nakedness; Mixt Dances are Incentives to Lust; Computations in Private Houses, is a Drunken Practice."

Cotton Mather (Magnalia, b. 3, pt. 2, ch. 28) gives some account of both these books, and the Rev. Messrs. Wilson and Mitchell, in their preface, assure us that "he that shall take time to pause upon what he reads (where great truths are but in few words hinted at) will find such truths concisely delivered, to be like marrow and fatness, whereof a little does go far, and feed much."

wants part of the last leaf. 8° Boston, B. Green & J. Allen, 1701

The two in one volume, old calf.

Early editions of Wigglesworth's famous poems are of the VERY HIGHEST RARITY.
"Meat out of the Eater" was first published in 1670 (see No. 882, note), but no copy of the first, second, or third edition appears in any American catalogue. Mr. J. W. Dean, in his memoir of Wigglesworth (N. E. Hist. & Genear. Reg., xvii. 145) says that "the earliest edition of which we have been able to obtain any information is the 4th;" and of this, only one copy, besides Mr. Brinley's, is known to the writer. "The Day of Doom" was first printed in 1662. "It is not known that a copy of either of the first three editions is extant" (Sibley, Harv. Graduates, 284). Neither Mr. J. W. Dean nor Mr. Haven (Cat. of Ante-Rev. Publications) could find a copy of any American edition earlier than the sixth, of 1715. "This work," says Mr. Sibley, "represented the theology of the day, and for a century, with the exception perhaps of the Bible, was more popular throughout New England than any other that can be named."

Copies of subsequent editions (1715, -51, 1811, -28, -67; and "Meat out of the Eater," 1770,) will be found in the Second Part of this Catalogue, under the head of AMERICAN POETRY.

4° Cambridge, S. Green & S. Green, 1677

VERY LARGE and FINE copy of the only published work of the First Pastor of Boston. It is EXCESSIVELY RARE. This sermon "was preached on occasion of the Anabaptists first setting up in opposition to the Churches of Christ,"—says Increase Mathier (On Infant Baptism, 1680, p. 277). A Baptist church had been organized, in Charlestown, May 28, 1665. Five of their members had been disfranchised by the General Court (Oct. 11th), a few weeks before this Lecture was preached. Mr. Wilson, says Cotton Mather, "had the Zeal of a Pharisee, I had almost said of a Seraphim, in testifying against every thing that he thought offensive to God,"—and, "in his sight," adds Mr. Frothingham, "among things most offensive was Anabaptists and Quakers." (Hist. of Charlestown, p. 69.)

THE WORKS OF THE MATHERS.

For the purposes of this Catalogue, it has been found convenient to arrange the works of the several members of the Mather family—extending nearly to four hundred and fifty titles (exclusive of duplicates)—in the following order:—

(1) RICHARD, of Dorchester. (2) INCREASE, of Boston, son of Richard. (3) COTTON, of Boston, son of Increase.

The others follow in the alphabetical order of their Christian names: (4) AZARIAH, of Saybrook, son of Samuel (of Windsor). (5) ELEAZER, of Northampton, son of Richard. (6) MOSES, of Middlesex, Conn., gr. gr. grandson of Richard. (7) NATHANAEL, of Dublin and London, son of Richard. (8) NATHANAEL, of Boston, son of Increase. (9) SAMUEL, of Dublin, son of Richard. (10) SAMUEL, of Windsor, Conn., son of Timothy and grandson of Richard. (11) SAMUEL, of Witney (Engl.), son of Increase. (12) SAMUEL, of Boston, son of Cotton.

The works of INCREASE and COTTON Mather (Nos. 939–1282) are arranged in the alphabetical order of their titles: all the others, in the order of time of publication.

An obelisk (†) prefixed to a title indicates that the work was published anonymously.

In giving the sizes, the signatures have been the guide. Signatures in eights (or half-sheets, in fours) are marked 8^o; in sixes or twelves, 12^o.

Where no place of publication is named, it will be understood that the book was printed in Boston, unless specially marked as of no place (n. p.)

1250 930 MATHER (RICHARD) † Church-Government and Church-Covenant discvssed, In an Answer of the Elders of the severall Churches in New-England To two and thirty Questions, sent over to them by divers Ministers in England . . Together with an Apologie of the said Elders in New-England for Church-Covenant . . As also in an Answer [By JOHN DAVENPORT] to Nine Positions about Church Government. (Address To the Reader, by Hugh Peters.) pp. (4), 84, (2), 78, maroon morocco, g. e. 4^o London, 1643

— “The 32 Questions,” the Answerer whereof was Mr. Richard Mather, and not any other Elder or Elders in New England; who is likewise the Author of the Discourse concerning Church Covenant printed therewith, . . as he writes in a letter to a Son of his now in England.”—Preface to a Disputation concerning Church Members, etc., London, 1659.

“The 9 Positions (though written by Mr. Davenport) had the Approbation of the rest of the Elders in New England.”—I. Mather’s Discourse concerning the Unlawfulness of Common Prayer, p. 14.

“An Apologie” and “An Answer . . unto Nine Positions” have separate title-pages, but continuous paging.

A fine copy, from the Mather library, with the autograph of Increase Mather: “Crescentii Matheris liber, Londini, Maii (?) 23, 1689.”

- 760 934 MATHER (R.) The Summe of Certain Sermons upon Genes: 15. 6. Wherein Not only the Doctrine of Justification by Faith is Asserted and Cleared, And sundry Arguments for Justification before Faith, discussed and Answered, But Also The nature and the meanes of Faith, with the Imputation of our Sins to Christ, and of Christs Righteousness to us are briefly Explained and Confirmed, pp. (12), 47, best levant brown morocco, sides double paneled, centre ornaments, g. e. (Bedford). 4° Cambridge, Samuel Green, 1652
To the Christian Reader, by John Cotton and John Wilson, 1 p. A FINE COPY, with good margins, of this EXCEEDINGLY RARE book; the FIRST WORK of Richard Mather's PRINTED IN NEW ENGLAND (except a Catechism, of which no copy is extant).
- 350 935 MATHER (RICHARD) A Farewell Exhortation to the Church and People of Dorchester in New-England, pp. (4), 27, dk. red morocco extra, g. e. (Pratt). 4° Cambridge, Samuel Green, 1657
 SUPERLATIVELY RARE. This copy has suffered somewhat, at the hands of a former binder. The outer margin of pp. 3, 4, and the bottom margins throughout have been cropped too close, taking off one line from pp. 17-21, and three or four words from p. 26. The margins have been skilfully restored, and the few lost words can easily be supplied in facsimile.
- 220 936 — † A Defence of the Answer and Arguments of the Synod met at Boston in the year 1662, against the Reply made thereto by the Reverend John Davenport. . . Together with AN ANSWER [by the Rev. Jonathan Mitchell] to the Apologetical Preface set before that Essay. By some of the Elders who were members of that Synod, pp. (2), 46, 102. Elegantly bound in dk. blue grosgrain levant morocco, gilt back and paneled sides (Bedford). 4° Cambridge,
 On the margin of the title-page, is written, in the Autograph of Richard Mather: "For the Rever^d Mr Shepard;" also, "Thomas Shepard's Booke, y^e gift of y^e Rev^d. Author [Mr. Richard] Mather, Teacher of the Church in Dorchester," and "Ben. Wadsworth's, 1717." There are several marginal notes (in the "Answer") by Mr. Shepard—who has also written, at the beginning of each part of the work, the name of the author. RARE.
- 500 937 — Two MANUSCRIPT Sermons: (1) "2 Cor: 5: 1. At Goodwife Wilkens funerall, Dec^r. 6th, 164[8?]" 7 pp.—(2) "Psal. 90: 12. At Mr. Toogoods funerall, Dec^r. 12: 1653." 4 pp. (wants one page).
 Eleven neatly written pages. Good autographs of Richard Mather are EXTREMELY RARE. Additional interest is given to these choice specimens by their mention of two names not found in the records of Dorchester or in Savage's Genealogical Dictionary. "Goodwife Wilkens" may have been the wife or the mother of Bray Wilkins, of Dorchester and Lynn: but who was the "Mr. Toogood" who died in 1653?
- 850 938 — MANUSCRIPT SERMON, from Heb. 13. 17, preached "At an Ordination at Marleborough. Apr: 7: 1659." 16 pages, 8°
 A most desirable AUTOGRAPH, but of higher interest as an unpublished discourse of Richard Mather, on the duty of obedience and submission of church-members, to their ministers and officers. ("Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves," etc.)
 "He wrote a treatise to prove that whatever priviledge and liberty may belong to the fraternity, the rule of the church belongs only to its Presbytery."—Magnalia.
 The occasion and the date of this Sermon deserve notice. The town of Marlborough was not incorporated until May, 1660, and the Rev. William Brinsmead (a native of Dorchester, and doubtless a member of Mather's church) is said to have been the first minister, but he was not installed until October 3, 1666. That he (or any other) minister was ordained at Marlborough as early as April, 1659, seems to have been unknown even to Mr. Hudson, the local historian.

- 700 939 MATHER (INCREASE) Advice to the Children of Godly Ancestors. Given July 9. 1721. And taken in Short-Hand, by one of the Hearers, pp. 16, [In A Course of Sermons on Early Piety, by the Eight Ministers who carry on the Thursday Lecture in Boston.] clean and sound, in the original binding. 12° S. Kneeland, 1721

The Preface to this volume is also by I. Mather. The first sermon is by Cotton Mather: "What the Pious Parent wishes for." The sermons are separately paged. An alphabetical arrangement reverses, in this instance, the order of time, giving the first place, in the catalogue of Increase Mather's works, to one of his latest (No. 149 of Mr. Sibley's list). The "Advice" was given in his 83d year, "without using any notes;" "nor could we have come at this particular Sermon, if we had not been beholden to the Pen of a pious Gentlewoman belonging to his Flock, who gives us this Copy of what the Ready-Writer took from him, as he delivered it."—C. Mather's Mantissa.

- 1200 940 — Angelographia, or A Discourse concerning the Nature and Power of the Holy Angels . . . Delivered in several Sermons: To which is added, A Sermon concerning the Sin and Misery of the Fallen Angels: Also a Disquisition concerning Angelical-Apparitions. pp. (16), 132, 44, dark red grosgrain levant morocco, gilt back, ins. borders, g. e. (Bedford).

B. Green and J. Allen, for S. Phillips, 1696

The Disquisition concerning Angelical Apparitions is separately paged, and has the imprint: Boston, for Samuel Phillips, 1696.

— An Answer of Several Ministers to that Case of Conscience (concerning Marrying a Wife's sister). See No. 722.

- 2600 941 — † An Arrow against Profane and Promiscuous Dancing. Drawn out of the Quiver of the Scriptures. By the Ministers of Christ at Boston in New-England, pp. 30, olive morocco extra, g. e. (Bedford).
VERY RARE. 8° Samuel Green, 1684

The motto of the title-page (taken from William of Paris) is: "Chorea est Circulus cuius Centrum est Diabolus,"—"the Dance is a circle whose Centre is the Devil!"—"Such Church-Members in N. E. as have sent their Children to be Practitioners or Spectators of mixt Dancing between Young Men and Maidens," says the Reverend author (p. 29), "have cause to be deeply humbled. But stand still a while! what a word is here! Church-members and their Children in N. E. at mixt Dances! Be astonished, O ye Heavens! without doubt, Abraham is ignorant of us, and Israel knoweth us not!"

In November, 1684, the Ministers of Boston "come to the Court and complain against a Dancing Master [Mr. Francis Stepney] who seeks to set up here, and hath mixt Dances, and his time of meeting is Lecture-Day, and 'tis reported he should say that by one Play he could teach more Divinity than Mr. Willard or the Old Testament. Mr. Moody said 'twas not a time for N. E. to dance. Mr. Mather struck at the Root, speaking against mixt Dances." (Sewall's Diary.) Mr. Stepney was ordered not to keep a dancing school. Disregarding the prohibition, in February, 1685-6, he was prosecuted and fined £100, for "speaking blasphemous words," but the payment of all but £10, was remitted on condition that he should leave Boston before the last of March. Just then, a second impression of "The Arrow against Dancing" was published.

- 500 942 — Awakening Soul-Saving Truths, Plainly delivered in several Sermons [on the Called and the Chosen], pp. (2), ii, 100, (1), a corner torn from last leaf. 12° S. Kneeland, for B. Gray & J. Edwards, 1720

VERY RARE. "Not in C. Mather's list or in any library catalogue." Mr. Sibley gives the title (No. 145) from Mr. Brinley's copy, and mentions no other.

- 2600 948 — A | Brief History | of the | Warr | With the Indians in | NEVV-ENGLAND. | (From June 24, 1675. when the first English-man was murdered by the Indians, to August 12, 1676. when Philip, aliàs | Metacomet, the principal Author and Beginner | of the Warr, was slain.) | Wherein the Grounds, Beginning, and Progress of the Warr, | is summarily expressed. | Together with a serious | EXHORTATION | to the Inhabitants of that Land, By INCREASE MATHER, Teacher of a Church of | Christ, in Boston in New-England. | (Quotations, 8 lines.) 4° Boston. Printed and Sold by John Foster over against the Sign of the Dove. 1676

Title (1 leaf), To the Reader (4 pp.), A Brief History &c. pp. 1-51, (1 blk. p.), Postscript, and Errata, pp. 8.—Title, "An Earnest Exhortation," &c., pp. (4), 26. A good, sound copy of this EXCEEDINGLY RARE book. No epithet can be too strong to characterize the scarcity of the one introuvable which so long escaped the search of American collectors; so rare, that Prince did not secure it for his New England Library, though he could pick up half a dozen Bay Psalm Books; so rare that S. G. Drake, the most indefatigable and successful of collectors, could not find it for his reprint, in 1862, and was obliged to copy even his title page from the London edition; and so rare that Mr. Sabin himself, when noting the fact (in the Menzies Catalogue) that "the New England edition is not mentioned by Lowndes, nor elsewhere, so far as we have been able to ascertain," makes the reluctant admission that "perhaps, no copy of it exists."

Mr. Brinley's copy is in fine condition, clean throughout, except inconsiderable water-stains, easily removable. It is in the original marble-paper wrapper. In trimming, one line of the Errata, on the last page of the Postscript and the Exhortation, was cut into, and a few of the signatures and catch-words were touched: but the injury is so slight that in a volume of less rarity and bibliographical importance, it would not be worth mention.

NOTES AND ADDITIONS BY THE REV. THOMAS PRINCE.
8° S. Kneeland, for S. Gerrish, 1722
This tract, as published, contains, after a prefatory address "To the Reader" [probably by Cotton Mather,] 2 pp.; 1. The Great End and Interest of New-England, by Jonathan

Mitchel; II. The Cause of God, and His People in New-England; a Sermon of Mr. John Higginson; III. New-England's True Interest, [by] William Stoughton; IV. The Testimony Finished, by INCREASE MATHER—dated Nov. 10, 1722—his LAST PUBLISHED WORDS, written "in the Eighty-fourth year of [his] Age, and under a Feebleness in the Valley of the Shadow of Death." The first Article, by Jona. Mitchel, is "extracted from an Instrument of his which bears date, Dec. 31, 1662." In "extracting" very great liberties, it appears, were taken with the original. Mr. Prince notes: "N. B. The following Piece of Mr. Mitchel's was wrote in answer to a letter of Mr. Higginson of Salem, who being to preach the Election Sermon, wrote to Mr. Mitchel to give his Thoughts upon the subject." "N. B. Having compar'd the follow'g Extract, with the Original MS. of Mr. Mitchel, I find these variations." The variations are noted, and the large omissions supplied, in Prince's very neat chirography, on the margins, blank pages, and on two leaves inserted. There is scarcely a sentence without a correction, and the additional matter is nearly equal, in amount, to the printed extract. The tract is in beautiful condition.

The signatures and paging are continuous. 2600 1007 — THE MYSTERY OF ISRAEL'S SALVATION Explained and Applied, Or, A Discourse concerning the General Conversion of the Israelitish Nation . . By Increase Mather M.A., Teacher of a Church in Boston in New England, . . fine clean copy, large margin, pp. (46), 181, (10), old calf, neat, EXTREMELY RARE.

8° n. p. [London?] Printed in the year 1669

A second title-page, placed after the Preface, has the imprint: London, Printed for John Allen in Wentworth Street, near Bell Lane, 1669.

This is the FIRST of Increase Mather's acknowledged publications. It stands as No. 1 in Mr. Sibley's catalogue of Mather's works (Harvard Graduates, 438.) Isaiah Thomas (Hist. of Printing, i. 286) says: "There is in an ancient library in Boston, a copy of Increase Mather's Mystery of Israel's Libation (sic) printed in London, by John Allen. It is supposed he came to Boston by encouragement from the Mathers." But Allen's name does not appear on the first title-page, and on the second the imprint is "for"—not as Thomas has it—by Allen. The work may have been printed by Green at Cambridge, and some copies may have been provided with a special title-page for the London market. It is certain that both title-pages were printed from the same types.

Collation: Epistle to the Reader, by John Davenport, 1667 (11 pp.); To the Reader, by W. G. (4 pp.); To the Reader, by W. H[ooke] (14 pp.); The Author's Preface (14 pp.); Text, pp. 181; Table, &c. (9 pp.)

1150 1008 — The Mystery of Israel's Salvation. Another copy, clean and sound, in the original binding, well preserved.

8° London, for John Allen, 1669

This copy has only one title-page, which has the London imprint in full. In a penciled note, Mr. Brinley quotes what Thomas says of the printer (or publisher) John Allen, and adds: "The two most complete collections of the Mathers' writings are those of Harvard College and the Am. Antiq. Society. Neither of these includes this work." It is not in the Prince or the Mass. Hist. Society's Catalogue.

— † A Narrative of the Miseries of New-England, etc. See No. 338.

8300 1009 — Now or Never is the Time for Men to make Sure of their Eternal Salvation. Several Sermons, pp. (4), 113, good copy, polished calf gilt (Bedford). 12° T. Green, 1713

VERY RARE. Not in the Am. Antiq. Society's, the Prince or the Mass. Hist. Society's Library. Mr. Sibley (No. 116) had seen no other copy than Mr. Brinley's.

1800 1010 — The Order of the Gospel Professed and Practised by the Churches of Christ in New-England, Justified, by the Scripture and by the Writings of many Learned Men, etc., pp. 143, (1), brown levant mor. extra, g. e. 12° B. Green and J. Allen, for Benj. Eliot, 1700

This London reprint is VERY RARE. It is not in Mr. Sibley's list.

500 1012 —? The Original Rights of Mankind Freely to Subdue and Improve the Earth. Asserted and Maintained. By I. [or J.] M. pp. (6), 22, UNCUT. 8° Boston, for the Author, 1722

Attributed to Mather, in the Am. Antiq. Society (Haven's) catalogue, and by Mr. Sibley (No. 157), on the authority of a copy on which I. M. is extended to "I. Mather, D.D." in a nearly contemporary hand-writing. Mr. Brinley's copy is so inscribed, and is probably the one to which Mr. Sibley refers. The main argument of the tract is, that "Monopolizing dormant lands subjects the Colony to Slavery," and that all "dormant (unimproved) Lands ought to be Taxed for the support of government," and it appeals to the General Assembly to "undo heavy Burdens, break every Yoke, make us a free People, to Enjoy without Price or Purchase what God hath freely given us," &c. It is EXTREMELY RARE. If by Mather (which seems very doubtful) it is the last work (independently) published by him.

The Rev. John Williams (the "Redeemed Captive") wrote on a blank leaf of this volume: "Dono dedit Reverendus Author, Johanni Williams, 1707," and sixty-four years afterwards, his great-grand-daughter wrote: "Eunice Williams Her Book, Jan'y 1st 1771. A New Year's Gift By Her Hon'd Grand-Father the Rev'd Stephen Williams" (of Longmeadow). It is in good condition, and has evidently been carefully preserved.

In the first tract, the address "To the Reader" contains a brief notice of the attack on Deerfield and the capture of Mr. Williams and his family, with two marginal corrections, probably by his pen. The discourse makes frequent allusions to recent events: the great snow, of Dec. 1703, and the loss of a Boston ship, in the harbor (p. 8), the storm of April 7th and 8th, 1704, which wrecked the French privateer "designing to do us hurt" (p. 28), the terrible "windy tempest" at Cambridge, in 1682 (pp. 63-4), etc.

"To the Reader," 2 pp., dated May 7, 1712:—"Cyder, and a Spirit Extracted out of it, has been much abused to Intemperance. Some observe, that since it has been so, a strange Blast has been upon the fruit Trees, in many Places; so as that some whose Orchards have yielded 500 Barrels of Cyder in a Year, now produce very little. But there is another sort of Strong Drink imported from the Sugar Islands, which has been of all others the most fatal. Boston in New-England, Printed by S. G[reen] for S. S[ewall], 1683
EXCESSIVELY RARE. "By Mr. Cotton Mather," written by Judge Sewall on his own copy of this Almanac, removes all doubt as to the authorship, if any could remain after a glance at the nine pages addressed to the Reader, in style notably Matherese. A letter from Rev. Simon Bradstreet of New London, written early in 1683, to Increase Mather (printed in The Mather Papers, p. 479) returns thanks to him and his son, for "the verses and Almanacks" sent, and a manuscript note, on this letter, by Prince, says: "Mr. Cotton Mather published an Almanack for 1683, beginning with March."
This is the SECOND — it has hitherto been regarded as the FIRST work published by Cotton Mather. The earliest publication ascribed to him in the list given by his son is "The Call of the Gospel," 1686. But see, below, Nos. 1195 and 1106.

To the Reader, 4 pp., by M. Mead; To the Reader, 3 pp., by Samuel Mather. Cotton Mather's name is signed at the end of the work (p. 59): "Finished Octob. 29, 1688." John) Hale of Beverly, doubtless, who was at Harvard College in the next class to Nathanael Mather.

The name of Samuel Mather, signed to the prefatory address, probably occasioned the error in the Mass. Historical Society's, and the Prince Library catalogues, by which the authorship of the book is assigned to him instead of to Cotton Mather.

This copy ends with "Finis," and is complete in itself. It was designed, however, as the title-page shows, to be accompanied by a reprint of "Some Discourses on the true Nature &c. of a Walk with God."

The initials N. R., subscribed to the Poem, (p. 16) are the last letters of the name Cotton Mather.

This poem was, probably, Cotton Mather's FIRST PUBLISHED WORK. Mr. Brinley's is the ONLY COPY KNOWN, and is believed to be UNIQUE.

In May, 1683, Nathanael Mather of Dublin wrote to his brother Increase: "The last I had from you was dated 9ber 15. 82. & with it Mr. Oaks his Sermon on Eccles. (see No. 837) and two of your son's Poems on him, for which I thank you."—The Mather Papers (4 Mass. Hist. Coll., viii.) p. 55. This is probably one of the two copies mentioned. One of the VERY RAREST of Mather's works. The title is not in S. Mather's list, nor in any library catalogue which has been consulted. It seems to be the second edition, with additions and change of title, of "The Man of God furnished with Supplies from the Tower of David," named by S. Mather, under the year 1706. Of the Seven Essays, the first, entitled "The Fall of Babylon," was appended to "Frontiers well Defended," printed in 1707, with a prefatory note headed "The Protestant Armed from the Tower of David." (See No. 1124.) At the end of the volume is "The Body of Divinity Verified" (2 pp.), which was (first?) printed in "Maschil," 1702 (No. 1165). "An Addition," pp. 91-95, contains "A Short Catechism for the Conscience, on the Condition of Ungospellized Plantations."

Mather's Life of C. Mather, p. 43.)

The Appendix (and its introductory "Mantissa") "touching Prodigies in New-England," are also separately paged. Some of the prodigies narrated are very striking: "In the summer of the year 1688, just before the first eruption of our unhappy War, we had growing in Boston a Cabbage-Root, out of which there sprouted three very wonderful Branches, one of them exactly resembling a Curtlace [Cutlass], another of them as exactly resembling a Rafier, and a third, extremely like to the Club used by the Indians in their barbarous Executions. I was myself one among the many who visited this Curiosity."

BURNET, THOMAS HUTCHINSON, &c. Bound between guard-leaves, in an elegant quarto volume, morocco extra, paneled sides, gilt edges, with clasp.

A volume of remarkable interest. The letters of Dr. Mather (about 50 in number) were written from Boston to his son, during the latter's service as deputy-commissary at Fort Edward and in Canada, and his subsequent residence in Quebec, until his appointment to a clerkship in the customs at Boston. The son, remaining loyal to the crown, became a refugee in England. His correspondence with his father was renewed after the peace, and this volume contains three letters addressed to him in 1783 and 1784, when Dr. Mather was in his seventy-eighth year. To these are added, thirteen letters from THOMAS HUTCHINSON to Samuel Mather, the younger, written while both were in England, 1779-83; a letter from Judge SAMUEL SEWALL, from London, Aug. 3, 1689, to his wife in Boston; a letter from Samuel Sewall (junior) to his brother, Nov. 26, 1713 (giving an account of the sickness and numerous deaths in Boston); one from COTTON MATHER (imperfect), sent with the manuscript of his "Nehemiah" (printed in 1721) to Judge Sewall; and another, of higher interest to historians, the original draught (four closely-writted pages, with numerous corrections) of COTTON MATHER'S LETTER TO GEORGE VAUGHAN, Agent for New Hampshire, March 3, 1708, concerning the genuineness of the instrument known as the Wheelwright Deed of 1629. (This letter was printed in the Appendix to Belknap's History of New Hampshire, and has been frequently referred to by writers who have taken part in the Wheelwright deed controversy.) A letter from Col. Edmund Quincy of Braintree, to Judge Sewall, Jan. 1721, replying to a question concerning the order of march of the Israelites in the wilderness, one from Gov. Wm. Burnet to S. Sewall, 1728 (injured), two or three from Mrs. Hannah Mather, wife of Dr. Samuel (and sister of Gov. Hutchinson) to her son, and several others are included in the collection.

This volume was formerly in the possession of Mr. Samuel G. Drake, who printed brief extracts from two or three of the letters, in the Introduction to his edition of Mather's History of Philip's War (pp. 18-22).

16° London: Printed in the Year, 1688: Reprinted at Boston, 1714

The preface, dated Feb. 26, 1713-14, announces that, "a scheme of a Bank of Credit, founded upon a Land Security, has been projected; and will be humbly offered to the Consideration of the General Assembly, at their next Session." The tract "sets forth in a plain and familiar way, not only the Nature, but the Feazibleness and Utility of such a Fund of Credit." This seems to have been the first gun fired in the Land Bank war of 1714-21.

The name of the author is signed at the end of the Letter, which is dated Oct. 22, 1714.

AN EXCESSIVELY RARE tract, apparently unknown to American bibliographers. Only its abridged title is given in the Havens (Am. Antiq. Soc.) Catalogue, on the authority of Thomas Prince's MS. It is one of the few publications bearing the imprint of "T. Fleet and T. Crump." (See Thomas, Hist. of Printing, i. 301.) The author was opposed both to the private and public Bank projects, and advocated the issue of public bills, to be loaned to the several towns, at five per cent.

- 27,00 1433 — The Present Melancholy Circumstances of the Province Consider'd, and Methods for Redress humbly proposed, in a Letter from one in the Country to one in Boston, pp. 16. [Dated, March 6th, 1718-19.]

16° Boston, for B. Gray and J. Edwards, 1719

No title-page; the date is in a colophon. Quoted by Felt, Mass. Currency, p. 71.

- 11,00 1434 — [COLMAN (JOHN)] The Distressed State of the Town of Boston, &c. Considered. In a Letter from a Gentleman in the Town, to his Friend in the Countrey, pp. (2), 10. 16° Boston, for Nicholas Boone, Benjamin Gray, and John Edwards, 1720

EXTREMELY RARE. April 12th, 1720, Gov. Shute called the attention of the Council to this pamphlet, and it being regarded as tending to disturb the administration of the Government, as well as the public peace, by reflecting on acts and laws of the Province, the Justices of the Peace were directed to inquire after the author and publisher, and proceed therein, &c. — Felt's Hist. of Mass. Currency, p. 74. The writer was a prominent supporter of the Private Bank project, and declares that "it was a very wrong step to crush [it] and set up this Publick Bank in its place" &c. (p. 7). He sees no remedy for hard times but inflation; thinks the Government should "go on some great and expensive work, and Emit Bills to carry it on;" "if there was a Bridge built over Charles River, if Fifty Thousand Pounds were expended to make it durable &c., this would help us by employing the Poor, and the circulation of the Bills would be a great service to every body," &c.

- 1100 1435 — A Letter from One in the Country to his Friend in Boston, containing some Remarks upon a late Pamphlet, entitled, The Distressed State of the Town of Boston, &c., pp. (2), 22, uncut, except a bit cut from (a blank) corner of title-leaf.

12° Boston, J. Franklin, for D. Henchman, 1720

The letter is dated, at the end, April 23, 1720, and was printed, probably, before J. Franklin was succeeded by S. Kneeland, as printer of the Boston Gazette, which was at this time the organ of the Governor's, Council's, and "Public Bank" party. Like all others of this series of tracts, it is EXTREMELY RARE.

- 2100 1436 A Vindication of The Remarks of One in the Country, upon The Distressed State of Boston, from some Exceptions made against 'em in a Letter to Mr. Colman, pp. 20, a fine copy, without blemish, and UNCUT.

16° Boston, S. Kneeland, for D. Henchman, 1720

Dated, May 24th. By the author of "the Letter from One in the Country" in reply to "Some Remarks, of the 16th of May," on that Letter. ["A Letter from a Gentleman, containing Some Remarks upon the Answers to Mr. Colman," &c. Boston, pp. 15.] He promises, in a short time, to submit to the public, a Project he had hit upon, for emitting an hundred thousand pounds of bills. (See the next following number.)

- 050 1437 — A Project for the Emission of an Hundred Thousand Pounds of Province Bills, in such a Manner as to keep their Credit up Equal to Silver, and to bring an Hundred Thousand Pounds of Silver Money into the Country in a few Years, pp. 16, no title-page, date and printer's name at the end, UNCUT.

8° Boston, S. Kneeland, for J. Edwards, 1720

By the author of the "Letter from One in the Country" and "A Vindication." Dated, July 18th. Appended, pp. 14-16, is a brief reply to Mr. Colman's second tract (No. 1439).

- 1600 1438 Reflections On the Present State of the Province of Massachusetts-Bay in General, and Town of Boston in Particular; Relating to Bills of Credit and the Support of Trade by Them: As the same has been lately represented in several Pamphlets, pp. 22, fine clean copy, UNCUT, with nearly 2 pages of MSS. criticisms, on an unprinted leaf, at the end, and a long note in margin of pp. 13, 14.

12° Boston, for B. Eliot and D. Henchman, 1720

Dated, July 2d. VERY RARE. The manuscript notes in the same hand as in No. 1439, are by a determined opponent of inflation. "This work," he writes "supposeth that in unbalanced Extravagant Trade, managed by a Paper Medium—let the prices of things rise never so high, yet the Medium shall keep its prime Value, even when every thing else alters, which is an utter impossibility. All the power and wisdom of this World cannot make a 20s. bill, wch was once equal in value to a yard of Cloath, equal to it when the same or a like yard of Cloath comes to be 40 shill. in value," etc.

- 2500 1439 — COLMAN (JOHN) The Distressed State of the Town of Boston Once more Considered. And Methods for Redress humbly proposed. With Remarks on the pretended Country-man's Answer to . . . The Distressed State of Boston &c. With a Scheme for a Bank laid down: And Methods for bringing in Silver Money, Proposed, pp. (2), 22, uncut, with cotemporary manuscript notes and adverse comments [by the Reverend Country-man?], filling the margins of several pages.

16° Boston, for Benjamin Gray, [1720]

Dated, at the end, July 20th. Colman alludes (p. 1) to the high "character of him who is accounted the Author" of "the pretended Country-man's" Letter; charges him with "forgetting the Scriptures, though (if I am not out in my guess) his Profession is to Study them" (p. 3): and "advises the Gentleman to stick to Divinity for the future." "I like him," he says (p. 16) "much better in the Pulpit, there I'll willingly receive his Instructions; but now he is out of his sphere."

- 1440 — New News from Robinson Cruso's Island, in a Letter to a Gentleman at Portsmouth, (n. t. p.) pp. 8.

16° Cruso's Island [Boston], 1720

Dated, at end, Dec. 10th, 1720. Written by an advocate of a larger emission of bills of credit, and against the majority in the Council and the supporters of Gov. Shute in his contest with the popular party. It abounds in allusions, serious and satirical, to prominent men and measures of the time. A hit at "the great DON DAGO, the Primate-would-be of our Island (like the famous Dr. S——1 [Sacheverel])" and his "old Itch of Scribbling," seems intended for Cotton Mather, and so, perhaps, is one at a "Clergy-man who (Comedian-like) will stand belabouring his Cushion and intermixing his Harrangue with THUNDER-BOLTS, while he is entertaining his peaceable Congregation with things whereof he is almost as Ignorant as I am of the Saddle Balaam rode on when his Ass spoke," etc.

When Gov. Shute, in his speech at the opening of the session, March 15, 1721, recommended measures to punish the authors of factious and seditious papers, the House answered that few or none would dare to publish such papers "if proper measures had been taken to discover and punish the authors of a libel, called, News from Robinson Cruso's Island, wherein the members of the House are grossly reflected upon" (HUTCHINSON, ii, 223). To that libel, the "New News" &c., was perhaps a rejoinder. Haven's (Am. Antiq. Soc.) Catalogue has, on the authority of the Prince MS., the title of "Reflections upon Reflections: or More News from Robinson Cruso's Island," attributed (with a query) to Elisha Cooke, the leader of the popular party in the House.

- 1441 — News from the Moon. A Review of the State of the British Nation, Vol. 7. Numb. 14. Page 53. — Tuesday, May 2. 1710. pp. 8, without title-page, or printer's name, good clean copy.

16° n. p., n. d. [Boston, J. Franklin, 1721?]

A satire aimed, apparently, at the House of Representatives, for their proceedings against the publisher and printer of "New News from Robinson Cruso's Island."

- 1442 — A Letter to an Eminent Clergy-Man in the Massachusetts Bay, Containing some Just Remarks, and necessary Cautions, relating to Publick Affairs in that Province, pp. (2), 13, UNCUT, except at top. 16° n. p. [Boston,] Printed in the year 1720—[21]

This pamphlet, now EXTREMELY RARE, was printed for Benj. Gray, Feb. 1720—21. At a meeting of the Council, Feb. 28, it was read and considered, and was declared to contain "many vile, scandalous, and very abusive expressions, which greatly reflect on His Majesty's Government and People of this Province, and tend to disturb the public peace." B. Gray, the publisher, was summoned, and "acknowledged that he had caused the same to be printed, and that the original in manuscript was delivered to him by an unknown hand," Feb. 8th. The Council directed the Attorney-General (Paul Dudley) "to prosecute the said Gray, or any other person that may have been concerned in the making or publishing the said Pamphlet."—THOMAS, Hist. of Printing, ii, 425. "I believe," says Thomas, "the affair was terminated by a compromise."

An "Advertisement," p. 12, notices the article in the "last Week's Gazette," "by a certain railing Rabshakeh," who has "attempted to stain the unblemished reputation of a Worthy Gentleman, and a hearty Friend to his Country" ("Americus Patriæ"); and a second Advertisement is dated from "Cruso's Island, 1721," promising for the press "a small Tract intitled, The Saddle set on the right Horse."

- 1443 — A Letter from a Gentleman in Mount Hope, to his Friend in Treamount, pp. 7, nearly uncut. 16° n. p., n. d. [Boston, 1721]

The Letter is dated, Feb. 27, 1721. It was occasioned by an article in the Boston Gazette of Feb. 20, dated "N. E. Castle William, February, 1720, 21," imputing interested motives to a writer ("Americus Patriæ,") who had advocated a larger emission of bills of credit. The Gazette writer had designated "Americus Patriæ" as "Worldly Wise Man." This allusion, and the account given in the "Letter," pp. 1, 2, of that "Reverend and Worthy Gentleman's" treatment by Andros, point unmistakably to the Rev. John Wise of Ipswich (Chebacco). See Nos. 1442 and 1445.

- 1444 — A Friendly Check, from a Kind Relation, To the Chief Canoncer, Founded on a Late Information, Dated N. E. Castle William, 1720, 21. pp. 7, no title-page or name of printer, fine clean copy.

16° n. p., n. d. [Boston, J. Franklin, 1721]

In this EXTREMELY RARE tract "Amicus Patriæ" [Rev. John Wise] essays "to answer a fool according to his follow," and then, in "a Letter from Amicus Patriæ, to his son, Feb. 23, 1720—21," replies, more seriously, to the imputation of interested motives. The offensive article in the Boston Gazette of Feb. 20, is reprinted, p. 7.

- 2100 1445 — A Word of Comfort to a Melancholy Country. Or the Bank of Credit . . . fairly Defended by a Discovery of the Great Benefit, accruing by it to the Whole Province, etc., By Amicus Patriæ [Rev. John Wise], fine clean copy, pp. (1), 68.

16° Boston [J. Franklin], 1721
 "Humbly Dedicated to the Merchants in Boston." A well-managed and witty plea for paper money and "inflation." It is, for general readers, the most interesting of all the tracts published in the Bank of Credit controversy, while its frequent references to trade, manufactures, industries, and home-life in Boston and in the country towns, give it, to the historian and antiquary, an exceptional value.

For the evidence on which I have attributed this work to Mr. Wise, the witty author of "The Churches Quarrel Espoused," and "A Vindication of the Government of N. E. Churches," see No. 1443.—T.

- 1000 1446 — English Advice To the Freeholders, &c., of the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay, pp. (2), 6, uncut.

8° Boston, J. Franklin, 1722

EXTREMELY RARE. Not in the Am. Antiquarian Society's, the Prince, or the Mass. Hist. Society's catalogues. It is an earnest appeal to the Freeholders &c., to consult and prepare for the election of "able and faithful PATRIOTS," to sit in the General Assembly, in May, 1722, and men who are able "to project schemes for reviving the sinking condition of the Province"; and they are urged to mark the "three or four misguided gentlemen that were active in promoting and drawing up the two Acts, in 1720," for preventing Riots &c., and "for preventing Libels and scandalous Pamphlets, &c.," both of which Acts were "so justly rejected by the House." It is dated, April 18th, and subscribed "Brutus" and "Cato." The pretence that it was received from England was, of course, intended merely as a blind.

- 1000 1447 — Money the Sinews of Trade. The State of the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay Considered, with respect to its Trade for want of a Medium of Exchange wherewith to manage it. Recommended . . . more especially to the Merchants and Traders in the Town of Boston. By a Lover of his Country, pp. 16, good copy.

8° Boston, S. Kneeland & T. Green, 1731

The author proposes that Merchants and Traders shall enter into copartnership for issuing bills or notes for circulation, to be loaned on land security, &c. He dwells on the bad effects that have resulted from giving currency in Massachusetts to Rhode Island bills: "We have given the bread out of our own mouths, and enrich'd them, who now despise us for so doing."

- 700 1448 — Trade and Commerce Inculcated; in a Discourse, Showing the Necessity of a Well-governed Trade, in order to a Flourishing Common-Wealth. With some Proposals for the bringing Gold & Silver into the Country for a Medium of Trade, [and] for supporting the Credit of the Paper-Currency. By Amicus Reipublicæ, pp. 58, uncut. 8° n. p. [Boston,] Printed for the Author, 1731

[Boston] Printed for the Public Good, 1741

Dated, Boston, Feb. 21, 1740-41. Against the Land-Bank, or "Manufactory Scheme." The members of this association, which the writer regards as a "pernicious grand Bubble," "value themselves as being formidable by their numbers, 2000 principals, as they publish, and many thousand abettors." See HUTCHINSON, ii, 352-354; FELT'S Hist. of Mass. Currency, p. 106, and after.

800 1455 — A Letter from a Gentleman in Boston, To his Friend in Connecticut, pp. 15, uncut. 4° n. p., n. d. [Boston, 1743]

The Letter bears date, Feb. 27, 1743-4. It contains a reply to "Heads proposed for an Act of Parliament, to regulate and finally suppress Paper-Currencies in the N. E. Colonies," in which Rhode Island for her enormous emissions of paper money, and "that infamous combination called Land Bank," in Massachusetts, were severely censured. The writer aims to show that there is no necessity for such an Act.

8° n. p. [Boston,] Printed in July, 1754

A beautiful copy of this VERY RARE tract, which gave such offence to the legislature of Massachusetts that it was ordered to be burnt by the common hangman, and Daniel Fowle, suspected of having printed it, was arrested and imprisoned. See Thomas's History of Printing, i. 333-339. It gives a satirical account of the debate on the Excise Bill, in the Council, after its passage by the House. The reputed author was Samuel Waterhouse. Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, No. 12982) says: "Of this work . . . not more than three or four copies are known," to have escaped the fire to which it was condemned by the General Court.

⁴ Boston, G. Rogers, n. d. [1749-50]

A MATCHLESS COPY of the VERY RARE FIRST EDITION of this curious satirical poem—for some account of which see Duyckinck's Cyclop. Am. Lit., i. 120, and Drake's Hist. of Boston, 629. The "wonderful sight" was a Masonic procession, on St. John's Day, and the Boston wit bids his muse

—"in verse declare

Who were the men, and what they were,
And what their names, and what their fame,
And what the cause for which they came
To house of God from house of ale,
And how the parson told his tale:
How they return'd, in manner odd,
To house of ale from house of God."

3.00 1647 — INOCULATION. [A Friendly Debate, between Mun-Dungus Sawney and Academicus], wants title-page and last two leaves, pp. ii, 1-18. 8° [Boston, 1722]

EXTREMELY RARE. Manifestly inspired by Cotton Mather, and perhaps written by his nephew Thomas Walter. Mun-dungus Sawney is, of course, Dr. Douglass, — the opprobrious epithet being suggested, apparently, by his "M.D." It is dedicated "To my very Worthy Physician, Mr. Zabdiel Boylston."

26.00 1648 — — [DOUGLASS (Dr. Wm.)] The Abuses and Scandals of some late Pamphlets In Favour of Inoculation of the Small Pox, Modestly obviated, and Inoculation further consider'd in a Letter to A — S — M.D. & F.R.S. in London, uncut, pp. (4), 11. 8° J. Franklin, 1722

In this rejoinder to "A Vindication of the Ministers," &c. and "A Friendly Debate," Dr. Douglass treats Cotton Mather "with a philosophical freedom," as he terms it. "The University of Glasgow . . . gratify'd his Vanity with a D.D. . . Perhaps he may oblige this his Alma Mater to disown him for a Son, as it seems the Royal Society have already done, by omitting his name in their yearly Lists."

The Register for 1785, by Nathan Daboll, published by T. Green, is the first of "Green's Registers;" but in 1830, Col. Samuel Green, the publisher, began to number the series, from 1791, the year in which his name first appeared (with his father's) in the imprint. The Register for 1830 is "No. 40," and that for 1848 (the last published for Samuel Green) is No. 58.
The earlier numbers of the Register are VERY SCARCE, and few Connecticut collectors have succeeded in making a set complete.

The volume for 1847 (the first) was compiled by the Rev. C. W. Bradley, Secretary of the State. The volumes for 1848 and '9 retained the name of "Bradley's Conn. Register." Since 1849, it has been published as "The Connecticut Register," by Brown & Parsons, F. A. Brown & Co., and Brown & Gross.

- 57.00 2054 ELECTION SERMONS: 1713 to 1830 (inclusive), in good order for binding, except the Sermon for 1727, which wants the last leaf. 114 Sermons. 16°, 4°, and 8°
The Election Sermons of 1729, 1735, 1739, and 1743, were not printed. Five sermons were printed in Cambridge and Boston, before a press was established in Connecticut. Of these five, four will be found elsewhere in this Catalogue: namely, J. Fitch's, 1674 (the FIRST PRINTED), No. 767; S. Wakeman's 1685, No. 880; J. Whiting's, 1686, No. 888; and G. Saltonstall's, 1697, No. 854. Only three (1710-12) were printed in Connecticut before that of J. Bulkeley, 1713, with which this series begins.
Mr. Brinley began this collection of these Sermons nearly forty years ago, and allowed no opportunity of completing and perfecting it to escape. His success is almost unexampled. Many of the earlier sermons are EXTREMELY RARE, and nearly all, before 1790, are scarce. It is unnecessary to remark on the importance of a series of the Election Sermons, to any historical library. There is scarcely any source from which so much light is thrown on colonial institutions, civil and political, as well as religious.
From 1713 to 1764, inclusive, the Election Sermons were printed at New London: 1765-1770, alternately at Hartford and New London; 1771-74, N. London; 1775-1818, Hartford, except 1778, N. Haven; 1818-1830, alternately, Hartford and New Haven. The size was, from 1710 to 1764, 16° (hf. sheet 8°); from 1765 to 1784, various, 4° and 8°; after 1784, uniformly 8°.

24.15 2055 ELECTION SERMONS: 1717 to 1830 inclusive, but wanting thirteen years of the series. 97 Sermons, bound and unbound.

The Sermons wanting are for the years 1719, -22, -23, -24, -28, -40, -41, -44, -46, -66, -71, 1819, -20. The collection contains several duplicates, not counted.

For full and impartial accounts of John Rogers of New London, the founder of the sect of "Rogerenes," sometimes called "Rogerene Baptists," and "Rogerene Quakers," see Backus's History of N. E. Baptists, i. 473-480; ii. 105-108; and Miss Caulkins's History of N. London, pp. 202-221. John Rogers, senior, who died in 1721, published numerous books and pamphlets, nearly all of which were without date, place, or name of printer. "A Midnight Cry" was several times reprinted. The editions, probably, were small, and as the circulation of the books was restricted to the sect, copies of the earlier impressions are now VERY RARE, and are still more rarely found complete or in tolerable condition.

An UNCUT copy of Stiles's Judges is, as every collector knows, of EXTRAORDINARY RARITY. It is believed that no copy containing the plates remained uncut. For a description of and extracts from this curious and VERY RARE book — the first volume of verse, printed in Connecticut — see Duyckinck's Cyclop. of Am. Lit., i. 79. The greater part of the volume (pp. 19-78) is occupied with "A Brief Account of the Agency of the Honourable John Winthrop, Esq; in the Court of King Charles the Second, Anno Dom. 1662, When he obtained for the Colony of Connecticut His Majesty's Gracious CHARTER;" in which the author relates the early history of the Colony, the Pequot war, etc.

MANUSCRIPTS.

ACCOUNT BOOK OF MAJOR JOHN TALCOTT.

- 165.00 2135 TALCOTT (JOHN) MANUSCRIPT ACCOUNT BOOK, 1674-88; including his accounts with the Colony, of his receipts and disbursements, as Treasurer, during the INDIAN WAR, 1675-6. Continued by his son, Samuel Talcott, to 1728. Elegantly bound, in full dark brown levant morocco extra (by Bedford). cap folio.

Major Talcott was Colony Treasurer from 1659, until his death, in 1688; an Assistant, from 1662; and Commander-in-chief of the Connecticut forces in the Indian War, in 1676. This volume contains his public as well as his personal accounts, for about 15 years. Every page has matter of interest to students of Connecticut history, and there are many entries sufficiently curious to attract even the most cursory reader. Here is one account, as it stands on opposite pages of the ledger (pp. 54, 55):

"1676. Capt. John Stanton of Stonington, DR. To sundry Commissions gave Capt. Stanton to proceed ag' y^e Indians: by which he gained much on sales of captives."

"CONTRA. 1677, April 30. Per received an Indian Girl of him, about 7: years old, which he gave me for Commissions on the other side, or at best, out of good will for my kindness to him."

That Major Talcott was careful to save all the property of the Colony for which, as magistrate or treasurer, he was in any measure responsible, the following entry bears testimony:

"1679. Jan. 1. COUNTRY, DR. To so much paid Wm. Edwards, for taking Henry Green out of the Dungeon, being dead,—cutting off his legs to save his Irons, & seeing to his buriall, for which I promised & p'd him £00.10.00."

HARTFORD COUNTY-COURT RECORDS, 1718-19.

1000 2136 The Original Records of the Hartford County Court, April 8th, 1718, to June 9, 1719. Also, Records of the Court for the Trial of Small Causes, in Hartford, [before Hezekiah Wyllys Esq. J. P.,] June 21, 1727—May 17, 1731: and of the Court of Chancery or Equity, holden at Hartford, May—Aug. 1736, [for the decision of cases growing out of the repeal of the act of Incorporation of the New London Society United for Trade and Commerce.] Half dk. brown levant morocco extra (F. Bedford). folio.

This volume—rescued a few years since from a paper-mill—is of much interest to Connecticut historians and antiquaries. It fills a gap—which, certainly, ought never to have been made—in the original records of both the Hartford County Court and the Colonial Courts of Equity. Col. Hezekiah Wyllys, of Hartford, was Secretary of the Colony, from 1712 to 1735, and a Judge of the County Court.

A very LARGE and BEAUTIFUL copy, nearly uncut, of this SUPERLATIVELY RARE book. The margins of the title and inner margin of the next leaf have been extended.

Previous to the acquisition of this copy by Mr. Brinley, the one in the Library of the American Antiquarian Society in Worcester was regarded as UNIQUE, at least for this side of the Atlantic. A third copy was subsequently discovered, which also came into Mr. Brinley's possession.

EXCESSIVELY RARE, if not UNIQUE. Its title is not in Haven's (Am. Antiq. Soc.) Catalogue, in Sabin's Dictionary, or in any other Catalogue that has been consulted. It was perhaps privately printed. This, the only known copy, has several corrections of the text, which seem have been made by the author.
When this tract was written, Roger Sherman was in business as a country-merchant, in New Milford, but was prosecuting the study of law. He was not admitted to the bar until December, 1754. This is not only the earliest but (with the exception of his Almanacs) the only work published by the man whom Jefferson pointed out as one "who never said a foolish thing in his life." Not long after this publication, in his Almanac for 1753, he "fills up a vacant page" (2 pages), with "Thoughts upon the loss and damages which the Inhabitants of the Colony of Connecticut have sustained by the depreciations of the Bills of Credit of Rhode Island and New Hampshire, since the year 1750."

 "Connecticut is almost totally an ecclesiastical state, ruled by the President of the College [Dr. Dwight], as by a Monarch" (p. 14). "Time only can determine who have done most injury to Christianity, Paine, or the Calvinistic clubs." The name of the author of this tract (which is now SCARCE) seems to have remained unknown. Mr. Brinley's copy has, on the first leaf, the name of "J. Andrews, from L. Andrews," and below the half-title, in the same hand-writing, "J. C. Ogden," i. e. the Rev. John C. Ogden, of New Haven, 1770-85, afterwards rector of the Episc. Church in Portsmouth, N. H., and again, for a time, in Connecticut, after 1793. I infer that the tract was printed by Loring Andrews in Stockbridge, about 1800.

With some account of the poor [criminal], and Some of the Last Words of several Dying Persons; a Discourse on Luke xxiii. 39-43, wants the four last leaves of the Discourse, and one other, VERY RARE.

12° Boston, B. Green, 1715

Occasioned by the execution of a murderer, at Newport, April 12, 1715. Mr. Clap was minister of the First Congregational church in Newport. See Bartlett's R. I. Bibliography, p. 77.

2500 2409 — CLAGGETT (WILLIAM) A Looking-Glass for Elder Clarke and Elder Wightman, And the Church under their Care. Wherein is fairly Represented the very Image of their Transactions. It being a brief but true Relation of the Cause and Prosecution of the Differences between the Baptized Church, under the Pastoral Care of the aforesaid Elders, and John Rhodes, Capt. John Rogers, William Claggett, and several others that were Members of the aforesaid Church, pp. 26, 230, mottled calf, full gilt back, filleted sides, g. c. (Bedford). 8° n. p. [Boston, J. Franklin.] Printed for J. Rhodes, J. Rogers, and W. Claggett, &c. And are to be sold by J. Rhodes, Shop-keeper in Newport, 1721

A very curious and an EXTREMELY RARE book, which, though it chiefly relates to personal grievances of the author and his friends, contains some matter of larger interest. The parties all belonged to the second (Six Principle) Baptist Church in Newport, of which James Clarke and Daniel Wightman were pastors. — The type is certainly James Franklin's. It is the same that was used for his edition of Hodder's Arithmetic (Boston, 1719) and one of the initial ornaments, p. 3, was used in his reprint of "The Isle of Man," 1719.

PRINTED BY J. FRANKLIN, AND THE WIDOW FRANKLIN.

3500 2410 — MDCCXXVIII. | The | Rhode-Island | Almanack, | For the Year 1728, | . . Carefully fitted, and exactly calculated to the Meridian of Newport on Rhode-Island . . . Being the first ever published for that Meridian. By Poor Robin. 7 leaves (one wanting?) UNCUT.

8° Newport, J. Franklin, at his Printing-House on Tillinghast's Wharf, near the Union-Flag Tavern, 1728

OF EXTRAORDINARY RARITY. THE FIRST WORK PRINTED IN RHODE ISLAND, — four years before the date which Thomas (i. 419) gives as that of the establishment of the First Press in Newport. A most desirable acquisition to every Rhode Island collector, it will be scarcely less attractive to collectors of FRANKLINIANA, in other states, since James's "Poor Robin" manifestly gave the hint for Benjamin's "Poor Richard," first printed in 1732. The calendar pages contain many pithy remarks and quaint proverbs, much in the vein of "Richard Saunders, Philom." Mr. Brinley's copy is well-preserved, but probably wants one leaf at the end, though the calendar is complete.

700 2411 — Adams (Rev. John) Sermon preach'd on the Day of his Ordination [as Pastor of a Church in Newport], pp. (10), 71, half mor. extra. 16° Newport, J. Franklin, 1728
